

ARE YOU SAVED READER?

Have YOU accepted Christ as YOUR OWN PERSONAL Saviour?

*If you have truly been born-again you will pass the following "test" of the genuineness of your faith with flying colours!
If you cannot do so, NOW is the time to be SURE and COME BY FAITH ALONE to the Cross of Calvary.*

"Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves" (2 Cor. 13:5).

In his excellent book on salvation, Dr. Robert Gromacki lists twelve things by which one may test his salvation experience.

~ THEY ARE~

|--|--|
| A. First, have you enjoyed spiritual fellowship with God, with Christ, and with fellow believers? (1 Jn. 1:3, 4) B. Second, do you have a sensitivity to sin? (1 Jn. 1 :5-10) C. Third, are you basically obedient to the commandments of Scripture? (1Jn.2:3-5) D. Fourth, what is your attitude toward the world and its values? (1 Jn. 2:15) E. Fifth, do you love Jesus Christ and look forward to his coming? (2 Tim. 4:8; 1 Jn. 3:2, 3) F. Sixth, do you practice sin less now that you have professed faith in Christ? (1 Jn. 3:5, 6) | G. Seventh, do you love other believers? (1 Jn. 3:14) H. Eighth, have you experienced answered prayer? (1 Jn. 3:22; 5:14, 15). I. Ninth, do you have the inner witness of the Holy Spirit? (Rom. 8:15, 16; 1 Jn., 4:13) J. Tenth, do you have the ability to discern between spiritual truth and error? (Jn. 10:3-5, 27; 1 Jn. 4:1-6) K. Eleventh, do you believe the basic doctrines of the faith? (1 Jn. 5:1) L. Twelfth, have you experienced persecution for your Christian position? ( Jn. 15:18-20; Phil. 1:28). |

Endtime Ministries is committed to:

- * Presenting the TRUTH...
A clear Trumpet call...
- * Affirming that the "WORD OF GOD", none other than the King James Version, the Holy Bible, is the Truth in its entirety.
- * Seeking to uncover those things which the Hidden forces of evil desire to keep from the people of the world.
- * Seeking to present the Truth in an objective, correct and God fearing manner.
- * Making available to others information on the insidious infiltration of the NEW AGE NEW WORLD ORDER
- * Seeking to encouraging the followers of Christ to fight against the forces of evil in prayer, and to warn the ungodly while there is still time.
- * Seeking to reinforce biblical belief in these latter days, before Jesus Christ returns.

"... and the servant of the Lord must not strive, but be gentle unto all men ... in meekness instructing those who oppose them." { II Timothy 2:23,25}

SNIPPETS

THE DANGERS OF CHILDREN'S MEDITATION.

A disquieting and lengthy article on children's meditation, yoga and relaxation appeared in "THE COURIER MAIL" MAY 29TH, 2001.

IN THE SECTION "ACCENT", PAGE 10, the atrocious article "LITTLE FLOWERS IN LOTUS POSITION" encourages parents to get their children into the demonic practices of stress relief, occult meditation, New Age "creative visualization" and other nasties! It recommended the ghastly and demonic "The Relaxation Centre", in Brisbane's Fortitude Valley, which would be known to some of our readers as a New Age nightmare center!

This following warning comes from Gary Kah's latest book on 'Altered States of Consciousness', which is basically what yoga, meditation and New Age relaxation techniques lead into: "When a person is in a normal, alert state of consciousness he possesses the ability to discern or 'screen out' deception by using logic and his ability to reason. However, going into an altered state strips away a person's defense mechanisms, allowing spirit entities to bypass the screening process to communicate directly with one's subconscious mind. This is incredibly dangerous for obvious reasons. It can potentially skew one's entire view of reality, planting untrue thoughts that may lead to unjustified actions or spiritual rebellion. If, for example, while in a trance you are told that you were molested by your parents as a child, upon coming out of the trance you would most likely believe this to have been the case, regardless of the actual truth. In Western society hypnosis has become the most acceptable technique for inducing a trance." PARENTS be warned !

( GARY KAH. "THE NEW WORLD RELIGION".

PUB. HOPE INTERNATIONAL PUB. INC. Pp 37,38).

BISHOP SWING & MULTI-FAITH.

Robert Muller & Bishop William Swing of Grace Episcopal Cathedral in San Francisco, work for the U.N. through the Uniting Religions Organization, and other religious unity structures. The Vatican, & the Gorbachev Foundation, are establishing the New Religious Order for the whole planet. In 1996 Bishop Swing went on a worldwide campaign to promote the United Religions Initiative. Look at what happened in JERUSALEM in particular:

"In Jerusalem, I met with Rabbi Mordechai Peron and numerous other rabbis and religious leaders... In Geneva with the World Council of Churches. In Tübingen, with the Rev. Dr. Hans Kung. In Rome, with Archbishop Fitzgerald, Cardinal Arinze, and Pope John Paul II. And in England with the Archbishop of Canterbury and Sir Sigmund Sternberg." (Swing, A Message for all the People. P.3).

DESPATCH: In 1997 Cardinal Arinze and the Archbishop of Canterbury met with religious "dignitaries" in Melbourne, to discuss enforcement of religious unity. Who was there? Our next Governor General, Archbishop Peter Hollingworth - speaking from the platform no less!

We do ask for prayer as we often receive mail from evil people on Internet. We are honoured to be able to stand for Christ Jesus in this way, our Website attracts thousands, praise God, don't misunderstand. But, the hierarchy of the Freemasons, occult people, cults groups and violent-sounding people contact us regularly, not just Christians. Yesterday some man sent a threat saying we "should be shot!" We need your prayers, Christians, as times are grim indeed.

These are important for Australians because of the inroads of the spurious teachings of RICK WARREN and his "PURPOSE-DRIVEN CHURCHES" methods, and BILL HYBELS of the same inclination. Many churches here are falling into these humanistic, high-powered methods without realizing what they are involved in. * We also have an expose booklet available re Rick Warren's Church. $2 posted.

The tapes bring out other issues that relate to these power-driven programs. Of especially interest is the info. on DATA BASING and PROFILING which is happening to Christian Churches in the USA. These almost unbelievable intrusions are occurring in Australia as well, we are sure of that. The Purpose-Driven Church schemes use questionnaires to delve into the congregation's attitudes, personal details, beliefs etc, which are then passed on to be Profiled and stored in Data Basing for the government, as well as the church files. Despatch has warned people here of these goings-on!!!

Have you listened, believers?

Do not fill out any questionnaires which intrude on your personal life, or engage in government or church SURVEYS!

These are being used for global political reasons, to profile the religious scene in Australia. We investigated this phenomenon some time back in a small way: we found that there was some sort of data basing going on at New England Armidale University, New South Wales.

Despatch deals this issue with the appointment of Anglican Archbishop Peter Hollingworth to the position of Governor General of Australia. We have commented many times on Hollingworth, and we were not too surprised by the appointment. He has powerful religious/political backing from the Vatican and World Conference on Religion and Peace (WCRP). The enormous power of the emerging religious/political UNITY of the One World Church cannot be overstressed.

Remember that the Governor General here has great authority.

Remember that a governor general, John Kerr, once dismissed a Prime Minister, Gough Whitlam, back in the 1970s? Hollingworth is not just a figure-head. I, for one, am deeply aware of the might of the Vatican in our political scene in Australia, and know Hollingworth to be a man controlled by the One World Church under the Vatican, the Gorbachev Foundation, and the U.N.

An excellent book was recently sent to us by GARY KAH which gives much important data on THE NEW WORLD RELIGION relevant to the appointment of our next governor general. If you want this book write to:

SNIPPET

QUOTE FROM DAVE HUNT:

"'Dialogue' is a popular folly unheard of in the days of the martyrs. Dialogue? It was either bow to Rome's imperious authority and accept her false gospel without question or else die at her hand. Nor has Rome changed her dogmas, though she has had to change her tactics. Vatican 11 clearly states that Rome's teachings are "irreformable."(1). Her agents in these "dialogues" insist that in the final analysis the Roman Catholic Church is the lonely true Church, that it has the sacraments which lead to salvation, and that it can never share this distinction with others. (2). The purpose of dialogue is to draw the "separated brethren" back under the Pope – clearly the road upon which evangelicals have set foot."

Australian Lutheran Church
Supports Ecumenical Engagement
Church President Visits
LWF Secretariat

NORTH ADELAIDE, Australia/GENEVA, 1
June 2001 (LWI) -

The Lutheran Church of Australia (LCA) recognizes the need to move forward with the other Lutheran World Federation (LWF) member churches and supports ecumenical engagement at home and globally.

Rev. Mike Semmler, LCA president made these remarks during a visit to the LWF Geneva secretariat, 14-16 May 2001 upon an invitation from LWF General Secretary, Rev. Dr. Ishmael Noko.

Semmler stressed that the LCA, an LWF associate member church since 1994 "does not wish to be isolated." He said the Lutheran church with around 100,000 members, is opening up to co-operation with churches of other Christian traditions in Australia, a vast country with a population of just over 19 million.

Noko welcomed the LCA's ecumenical attitude and engagement. He applauded the church's significant contribution to the LWF's exploration of what "communion" means, its participation in the context of Lutheran churches in Asia and involvement in relief work through Australian Lutheran World Service.

THE LUTHERAN WORLD FEDERATION

Semmler presented the report of the Anglican-Lutheran Dialogue in Australia, 1972-2000, to Noko. It was formally handed over to the two churches in Adelaide on 1 April 2001. The dialogue is co-chaired by (Anglican) Bishop Graham H. Walden and (Lutheran) Rev. Dr. Victor C. Pfitzner.

Titled: "Common Ground: Covenanting for Mutual Recognition and Reconciliation" - between the Anglican Church of Australia and the Lutheran Church of Australia - the report documents the faith and practice already shared by Anglicans and Lutherans. It makes proposals for closer relations and asks the two churches to accept the report as a basis for local cooperation in providing pastoral care to people. The churches are asked to solemnly pledge to walk together toward the long-term goal of inter-communion and recognition of ministries. "Common Ground" aims not at church union but at fellowship in the gospel. Anglicans make up 24 percent of the Australian population ....[end]

One of alarming results of the syncretism of all religions in the One World Church is the redefining of doctrines. The Vatican is a master-mind in redefinition techniques! Despatch deals this issue with the most important doctrine of all JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH. Millions go to hell every year because of the Vatican's errors in this regard, they utterly refuse to accept God's mandate about Justification being through Faith in Christ's Blood alone. But, redefinition on the doctrine has been done masterfully, so "consensus" can be reached with the "Protestants." We need to get God's way of salvation firmly in our minds, and completely understood, lest we fall victim to the falsities on the subject which are being peddled to the churches today. STAND firm on what you have, little flock of the Lord, we are standing for the glorious and true Gospel of Jesus Christ, let no man deceive you:

"Wherefore take you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to WITHSTAND in the evil day, and having done all, to STAND." (Ephesians 6:13).

THE MIGHTY STONE - THE LORD JESUS CHRIST.

The Catholic Church has been built upon a false rock, the belief that Peter, as an apostle, was the rock upon which the Church was founded, and all apostolic succession came through Peter, down through the ages, to one church - the Roman Catholic Church. But, Peter was only a little "rock" Greek "petra" in Matthew 16:16-18. Our Lord Jesus Christ was the ROCK that the True Remnant Church of these days was built upon - the glorious "PETROS." Keep in mind Whom you represent and serve! We are built on the Rock, and NO storm will wash us away! Matthew 7:24,25.

CHRIST JESUS is the Smitten Rock to the repentant people who come and drink from Him: Ex. 17:6; 1 Cor. 10:4; John 4:13,14; 7:37-39.

CHRIST JESUS is the Chief Cornerstone to the true Church: Ephesians 2:20.

CHRIST JESUS is the Smiting Stone cut without hands to the New World Order, and all evil world powers, at His Second Advent: Daniel 2:34.

CHRIST JESUS is the Crushing Stone to all unbelieving religious professors! He will crush all pagan UNITED RELIGIONS: Matthew 21:44.

WE BELIEVERS ARE:

"lively stones, built up into a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ." 1 Peter 2:5.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL
COMMONWEALTH OF
AUSTRALIA

HOLLINGWORTH IS NOW GOVERNOR GENERAL

The disquieting news that Prime Minister John Howard had appointed Anglican Archbishop Peter Hollingworth to the position of Governor General of Australia hit our country at the end of April, 2001. Not that most people in Christendom would find this news disquieting, most would welcome his appointment because they want a "protestant" church man in such a position of power. Little they know of this man's real agenda, or whom he sees as friends and foes.

Despatch has laid bare the facts about Hollingworth a number of times over the years, we have been aware of his religious/political ties for a long period.

Now, here he is in a position which gives his international buddies such power through him that it is unnerving. For our overseas readers, the Governor General is the Queen's representative here, Australia is still under the Royal Family's sovereignty. Our Prime Minister is democratically voted into power, the Governor General is chosen by the government. The G.G. can over-ride the elected government in extreme circumstances; which actually happened in the 1970s when the Governor General, John Kerr, dismissed the then Prime Minister, Gough Whitlam. Hollingworth is in an authoritative place here in Australia.

THE RESIDENCE!

Now I sit me down in school where praying is against the rule
For this great nation under God finds mention of Him very odd.

If Scripture now the class recites,
It violates the bill of rights.
And anytime my head I bow
Becomes a Federal matter now.

Our hair can be purple, orange or green,
That's no offence; it's a freedom scene.
The law is specific, the law is precise,
Prayers spoken aloud are a serious vice.

For praying in a public hall
Might offend someone with no faith at all.
In silence alone we must meditate,
God's name is prohibited by the state.

We're allowed to cuss & dress like freaks,
And pierce our noses, tongues & cheeks.
they've outlawed guns,
but FIRST the bible,
To quote the Good Book makes me liable.

We can elect a pregnant Senior Queen,
and the 'unwed daddy,' our Senior King.
It's "inappropriate" to teach right from wrong,
we're taught that such "judgements"
do not belong.

We can get our condoms
and birth controls,
Study witchcraft, vampires & totem poles.
But the ten Commandments are not allowed,
No word of God must reach this crowd.

It's scary here I must confess,
when chaos reigns - the school's a mess.
so, Lord, this silent plea I make:
should I be shot; My soul please take!

Amen

suggested in this passage that Christ did not pay the debt or literally suffer the penalty of the law for His people. He prepared the way for our debt to be remitted. Or in plain language, dispensing with all metaphor, He made it consistent and proper and honorable for sin to be forgiven according to the prescribed terms of the Gospel. The truth is Christ paid no man's debt." George Otis Jr.

'THROW OUT RACIAL & RELIGIOUS TOLERANCE BILL,'

AUSTRALIAN CHRISTIAN CHURCHES URGE FROM MIKE CLAYDON,

APOSTASY ALERT, JUNE 9, 2001.

The Australian Christian Churches (ACC) Tuesday urged the Bracks Government to abandon the amended Racial and Religious Tolerance Bill. ACC has primarily concerned itself with the implications of the religious tolerance aspects of the bill and is not addressing the racial tolerance aspects of the legislation. Victorian State Director of ACC Mark Conner stated: "The Australian Christian Churches urges the Bracks Government to abandon this needless and potentially hazardous bill, and calls on the Liberal Party not to ignore the voice of common sense. "While we acknowledge the Victorian government's attempt to amend the bill after community consultation, the Australian Christian Churches still finds the bill unacceptable. "Freedom to express one's religious beliefs are still not protected because the possibility of manipulating the legislation's wording remains real and uncertain."

Australian Christian Churches was established in February last year as a representative body of many of Australia's Pentecostal churches and church groups. ( In naming themselves

Australian Christian Churches, this group arrogantly seem to suggest that they represent Christianity in Australia -

They don't! )

Our Website contains a number of reports on Hollingworth and his participation in various global church activities here. Do a search of our site and please read these reports in their entirety, it is important for your understanding of the challenge we now face here!!! He knows the score, people, on the New World Religion and its agenda for the globe. He is an admirer of the Pope, and a man who loathes Biblical Christians - "fundamentals" as they are termed by the instigators of the new world religion. Peter Hollingworth is in a political place which could well bring about persecution for "fundamentals" who stand for Biblical creation, the absolutes of the Gospel message, one way of salvation through Christ's Blood alone and who will not "dialogue to consensus" with other religions of the world. Hollingworth is committed to bringing "peace" through a New World Religion. He is well in with the Unity and Diversity global powers. This writer is alarmed indeed by the appointment as Governor General to this Global Governance clone.

In the days of the Protestant Reformation a separation of Church and State did not exist in many countries. If for example England were in the control of Catholic royalty, then stakes would burn in towns and cities with Protestant martyrs going up in flames! If Protestant royalty was in rule, then the Reformers were free to spread the Gospel and put English Bibles into the citizens' hands. We do not fully understand this religious/political merger in Western countries in AD 2000. The New World Religion will be a religious/political authority, with complete Church and State union. The Archbishop, now our Governor General, will not bring just the influence of the now mostly liberal and compromising Anglican religion in England to some form of political power, through his own position, he will bring the insidious control of the Vatican as well! The Archbishop of Canterbury is a Pope's man, as Hollingworth is. As an official presenter at the "Religion and Cultural Diversity Conference" held under the control of the "World Conference on Religion and Peace" in July, 1997, Hollingworth showed his One World Church affiliations. What follows are a few excerpts from Despatch magazine in previous years, which show the extent of the collaboration of Hollingworth with his New World Religion cronies.

FROM DESPATCH, VOL. 9:3, REPORT NUMBER ONE ON "RELIGION AND CULTURAL DIVERSITY CONFERENCE", BEAR IN MIND THAT HOLLINGWORTH WAS AN OFFICIAL PRESENTER OF WCRP:

cil" took centre stage during proceedings. The conference finished on the recommendation that we should all listen to one another, those in other religions, and we should all listen to the NEW AGE! Perhaps the strange spiritual darkness of that conference can be grasped in the "Prayer of Togetherness" at the Religion and Cultural Diversity Conference Dinner. The lights were dimmed, there was only the illumination of one candle at each table, approximately 250 dignitaries and delegates bowed together, to the words of this "prayer":

"Let us focus on the candle, the small quivering fire the light in the darkness, the call to evening prayer, the call to thanksgiving.....for our togetherness for our unity, as sons and daughters of the earth in this vast and ancient land, this sacred soil of the Dreamtime.

In the presence of the ineffable Other, the Holy Being of Infinity, the Numinous Beyond, the One and the Ultimate, the Alpha and the Omega, the Unknown and the Unknowable, Lord of the Cosmos, Centre of Creation God, the God of power and righteousness. We pray to you in the immensity and grandeur of the world (et al)."

NO RELIGION KNOWS GOD.

As the above prayer shows, the conference speakers were in total agreement that no religion knows God, that God is unknowable! These religious "holy men" agreed that God was the "unknown" and "unknowable", and these were presented as the Godly leaders of the new global spirituality which will unite the planet in the next Millennium. How remarkable this is! Yet a simple believer in the Lord Jesus Christ, regenerated, washed in the Blood of the Lamb, sitting in their midst, can cry from a heart filled with gratitude - I KNOW GOD, through my relationship with the Precious Saviour Jesus Christ, God's Son.

The prayer above shows how far away Australia is, in the 1990s, to the reality of the Lord Jesus Christ as the Only Son of God, who came to die for the sin of the world on Calvary's Cross. God is now no longer even knowable, He is just the impersonal energy of the earth, Lord of the Cosmos, Cosmic "Christ", the Rainbow Serpent of the aboriginal Dreamtime.

NO RELIGION CAN CLAIM ABSOLUTISM.

The conference's saw the one cardinal sin of any religion as being ABSOLUTISM. There was general consensus that all religions tended to believe that they held absolute Truth, and that all others were relative to them. This was decried as pride, refusal to embrace others, separatism which tended towards war-like aggression, bigotry and spiritual blindness. The religious leaders of Islam, Baha'i, the Quakers, Catholic and Anglican priests, Buddhists and all the rest of the eclectic crew sat passively, showing veneer accord at any rate. The atmosphere was "loving", "harmonious", people mixed together with overt graciousness and intention to sink their differences. Sadly, the New Age globalists have sinister plans for them all, just over the horizon.

INTERFAITH INSTRUCTION MUST TAKE PLACE.

The predominate recommendation was that Interfaith training and dialogue ( or indoctrination?) must be embraced by all religions. No exemptions. This is mandatory, political, religious syncretism as international law! A bishop from Perth enlarged upon this indoctrination to me personally, as we chatted over mouth-watering savouries at Parliament House. He was thrilled

This person has no business acumen, is a 'bean counter' and does not even know the first thing about the business operation this grant is supposed to support. My [family member] can tell of utter frustration over the 'minder' and actually the business went backwards! (No wonder).

Eventually, [my family members] nearly went bankrupt - theirs was heavy transportation - car trailer carriers for semi-trailers and the technology for the rubbish collection trucks and bin - lifting technology we now have. [My family member] travelled the world selling this technology and was very successful. However, being naive over company stocks and shares, floated their business on the stock exchange and hoped to retire on the profits. (Probably an insider or a mole suggested this to them).

Not so - after 12 months of operation as a company the shareholders voted them out and virtually stole the business (which was very viable and running at a very good profit) and it ended up in the hands of the Packer empire. So who says the rot is only in the churches? How many other viable small businesses have been swallowed up like this? Eventually they are scaled down and closed up - like B.H.P., Mt. Isa Mines, some meat works and other manufacturing where the bean counters come in with their time and motion study exercises and eventually bankrupt a thriving business with their ignorance and stupidity.

Oh well, welcome to the New World Order - wheels within wheels!

Will sign off in the name of the Lord, and trust this finds you, as it leaves me, in good spirit and health.

"I'd like you to write this next statement down. Christ has not redeemed us by giving His life as a ransom for our sins in order that He might release us. Put a big dash now. For God never kept man captive in sin. On the contrary it was He who wanted to make us free. Christ has not redeemed us by giving His life as a ransom for our sins in order that He might release us — for God never kept man captive in sin."

"When the scriptures tell us that Christ hath purchased the church or that believers are bought with a price, they do not intend to teach us that salvation of sinners through Atonement is a pecuniary transaction, regulated according to the principles of debit and credit, but that their salvation was effected in the moral government of God by nothing less than the consideration, the stipulated consideration, of the death of His beloved Son. To these figurative expressions are super added others of human origin, such as Christ has paid our debt, has answered the demands of the law and satisfied the justice of God in our behalf."

"The Bible doesn't say that. 'If we say that Christ has paid our debt, it is true only in a figurative sense and can be no more nor less than this; that the sufferings of Christ accomplished the same purpose in the divine administration which would have been accomplished by our rejection and punishment. Being justified freely by His grace through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus.'

ances with the State that will change the nature of the church and compromise the gospel into oblivion. Yet there is a remnant here and there who have not bowed the knee to “consensus”, “compromise”, “convention” and “convenience”. [our emphasis]

We are pleased with the break in action, as we needed the rest. The Lord is gracious and has sustained us with solid fellowship and has provided for all of our needs. We see now more clearly than ever that each and every day we must strive for excellence in our Christian walk, while there is still yet a glimmer of day, so that we might walk in a manner worthy of our calling and lead others to Christ. Each word of the Scriptures becomes more precious as we seek to follow the example of Christ and Paul, taking each word from the Bible seriously and applying it to our life and conduct with the utmost sobriety and seriousness.

We cannot allow the evils of our generation to enter our lives or our homes - it is no longer possible to even watch the nightly news on TV as it shows strip tease bars and other abominations in an attempt to entice viewers! All around us we see fallen Christians, enmeshed in the sinful lifestyles of this generation, enjoying the recreations of the flesh. It is impossible to find modest clothing for children or women at the stores anymore. The doctrine of separation is long-gone, replaced with a newfound tolerance for anything imaginable. Each Christian does what is right in his own eyes. Like Lot, most Christians have become so ensnared with the world that they cannot see the danger around them and have no desire to flee immorality, temptations, or Satan himself.

Dear Wendies,

[“Marketing Christianity” by Monteith & Klenck ...see p. 14 this issue].

The whole report does not surprise us as these things have been happening and we have been privileged to witness some, if not all of this planned deception in the churches. No doubt this has been further entrenched through the Alpha programme (mainly) plus through other ecumenical overtures to the denominations.

[See Dean Gotcher’s Dialectic this issue p. 23.. request Alpha booklet & Diapaxis Video]

The Baptist Church in W..... invited Arch Bishop Bathersby [Catholic] to address a meeting of ‘Men at Work’ around Easter and we were all shocked by the open invitation to this apostate, especially when the pastor assured his congregation about 3 years ago that he would never lead them astray! It received a good write up in the local rag as well.

Apart from this type of manipulation in the churches, it is rife in the business sector as well. I can relate to this as what happened to ... [my family members]. The commercial side of it is referred to as “Research and Development” - where money is advanced to a business to do just that. However, when the grant is given, a ‘facilitator’ (or someone like that), from the government is installed in the business to oversee the distribution of the grant.

ARCHBISHOP PETER HOLLINGWORTH, WHO IS A Board Member OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER’S ‘Australian Commission For The Future’, [since 1992] and the Assist. Bishop of Perth, with the concept of a “well” of spirituality in all religions, which, if one delved deep enough, would show that we all have basically the same faith and the same God. The conference declared a “spark of God” in every man, a “well of faith” in all faiths. The bishop then went on to affirm his belief in the apostate teachings of the New Age teacher, Matthew Fox, and Jungian psychology. How wonderful it was for me to know that the True “well” is the One who declares Himself to be the Fountain of Life, the Living Water, and who told the woman at the well that she would thirst no more if she drank from Himself, Jesus Christ, the Water of Life. Here is the One True and Unique “Well”. “These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.” (11 Peter 2:17).

“But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst: but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.” (John 4:14).
PARLIAMENT HOUSE.

At Parliament House in Melbourne, I spoke with two high level priests of the Anglican church, David Murray - both are avid followers of the New Age ex-Dominican Matthew Fox. Fox who teaches that there was no Fall, no Redemption, and celebrates earth worship, adores “Mother Nature”, embraces occultism, and believes in the democidal agenda of ecological “sustainable development”. Fox who is a friend of the Luciferian David Spangler who advocates that all people on earth should undergo the “Luciferian initiation”! “ (End of first quote from Despatch).

From Despatch report in 1997, re the Religion and Cultural Diversity Conference (RCDC) and Archbishop Hollingworth: “SILK GIVES “THREE WORDS TO THE CHURCHES

David Silk, Anglican Bishop of Ballarat gave “three words to the churches” which we will examine.

THE FIRST “WORD” was “Dialogue”. Now if you think that “dialogue” just means conversation, discussion, tete-a-tete, you are sadly mistaken in what WCRP means by this term. Said Silk: “Dialogue is the place where relations between faith traditions begin. Dialogue begins when people, not ideologies meet each other...Above all, dialogue must include sharing in the worship and prayer of the other. In all faiths dogma and worship are closely bound together, and woven into disciplines which form a religion, a pattern and rule of living. A sign of this is the respect accorded to sacred books in the worship of many faiths. ...In worship we may sense a profound convergence, a common experience of God and humanity. In worship we may draw, by different yet adjacent wells, from a single water table of spirituality. In worship we may tap into the spiritual resources of the indigenous peoples and thus be the 'soul' of Australia." (End of Silk quote).

FORBIDDEN BY GOD!

The Bible forbids any such "dialogue"! There is but one God, and the pagan religions are NOT in any way drawing from the Water of Life which is Christ Jesus our Lord! He said,

"...whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst, but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." (John 4:14).

The pagan religions are destitute of the Holy Spirit:

"These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved forever."

(II Peter 2:17).

IS THIS TRUE?

A short encounter with the beliefs of some of these religions will make it plain, to the true believer in Christ Jesus, that God will not allow worship and dialogue with them. "

(End of Despatch quote.)

FROM DESPATCH REPORT 11, VOL. 9:3. SEPT. 1997:

"WHAT IS THIS ORGANISATION, WCRP, AND WHAT IS ITS AGENDA?"

We will start our investigation of WCRP with quotes from William Norman Grigg and Cornelia R.Ferreira:

"A 'UN of Religions?'... September/October 1994 issue of The Futurist. In an essay entitled 'Temples of Tomorrow: Toward a United Religions Organisation,' Richard Kirby of the World Network of Religious Futurists and the Late Earl D.C. Brewer wrote that 'Religions are now headed toward what may eventually form a United Religions Organisation (URO), structured in much the same way as the United Nations and sharing the same goals.' Once the URO is created, they predict, it will be given the task of creating a 'New Covenant' for the planet: 'The URO...will discern the nature of that covenant, and with it the responsibilities, rather than the rights, of planetary citizenship.' [Emphasis added] In other words, these paid prophets of the new world order would be called upon to help keep restive religionists in line." ("Freedom on the Altar", William Norman Grigg, American Opinion Pub. p.182).

"One of the long-standing goals of the Masonic New World Order seems finally within its grasp: its one-world church, in the making for over 150 years, is about to become institutionalised as the United Religions Organisation - the UR. Collaborating on the details are Bishop William Swing of the Episcopal Diocese of California; the Communist Gorbachev Foundation/USA; and certain leaders of the Catholic Church, working through

Q.
5...IN WHAT WAYS DOES RECOGNITION OF JESUS AS MESSIAH FOR ISRAEL [FUTURE] INCORPORATE INDIVIDUAL CLEANSING FROM SIN AND PERSONAL REDEMPTION?

A. Everyone must come to Christ in the same way, by Justification by Faith as an individual! Even in the Tribulation people are saved as individuals, by faith in Christ as Saviour. God will bring about, for the Jewish Remnant, a national awakening, however. Then they will see that their Messiah was Christ Jesus all the time, and they will go into their houses and weep for the One whom they pierced. (Look it up in the Bible if you do not know about this. Zechariah 12 etc, do a chain reference search). Not much time to do all this for you now, sorry.

Q.
6...WHAT SHOULD BE OUR RESPONSE TO JEWISH PEOPLE COMING BACK TO ISRAEL? EMPHASIS ON THEIR SALVATION.

A. The Jewish people who are coming back to Israel need salvation in Christ Jesus like anyone else. Many "Christian" groups who have this "Jewish" mania today will not even share the Gospel with the unsaved Jews! This is shockingly wrong, the unsaved will die in their sin, got to hell, Jew or Gentile. The Jews coming back to Israel are often ungodly, lost and confused. They need the Gospel, not recognition of their national claims and reconciliation with the Christian Church.

Q.
7...I DETECT AN EMPHASIS BY SOME BELIEVERS ON USING JEWISH WORDS AND PHRASES AND WONDER WHY THIS IS WHEN CHRIST IS ALREADY THEIR SAVIOUR AND LORD. WE RECOGNISE THAT END TIME EVENTS WILL BE APOCALYPTIC, ESPECIALLY FOR JEWS BUT AS CHRISTIANS, WE ARE REDEEMED.

[I Won't go into further detail]

A. We should never use Jewish names for Christ Jesus etc. This is a vast deception see our Website/CD. We love all people, and we love the Jews too, but facts and truth must be faced. The meaning of Yeshuah and such names have been revealed on our website. You are quite right about the Jews who are saved being at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb, NOT on earth in the Trib. - of course! They will not even be there when God takes up the nation again in the Trib, and before that period Jews are not recognized religiously in Gods' economy - only the Body of Christ is - all together, regardless of nation, race, sex or colour!

Dear Wendy,

Thank you for your concern to pray and fast for the "researchers." Everyone here in America who has been doing discernment for many years, most of the names which you would recognize, has been pulled out for various family, financial or health reasons. There are a few people who have the torches lit, but the rest of us have been silenced by uncontrollable life circumstances, unable to write or speak. As Paul described in I Thessalonians. Satan "thwarted" (literally meaning build up military embankments) in his attempt to come visit them.

We have all been thwarted, and we are perplexed, but not discouraged. It may be that that the Lord desires those who stand in the gap to be silent for a time. We see with our own eyes that the enemy is advancing rapidly, along the course which we all warned about and described such a short time ago. The enemy is at the gate, and in the case of the church, the enemy is WITHIN the gates at this very moment, forging alli-

THE JEWISH QUESTIONS:

Here you have shown so much insight, praise the Lord! Very encouraging as I sometimes feel very let down by the Christians, few seem aware of Biblical truth on this subject...Despatch editor

Q.
1...WHAT DOES THE VERSE "PRAY FOR THE PEACE OF JERUSALEM" MEAN TO CHRISTIANS TODAY? [WHEN CHRIST COMES THERE WILL BE PEACE!]

A. "Pray for the peace of Israel." As you no doubt realize this is a nonsense statement! It is a part of the gigantic misunderstanding going on in the churches. The majority in the churches seems to see Israel as a godly nation, right now! Nothing could be further from the truth. As the Bible tells us the Jews are not yet back with the Lord, and many are into the Babylonian Talmud, the Cabbala etc – the majority are simply secular people, few yet saved. One day God will pour out His wrath upon the nation of Israel in the Time of Jacob's Trouble – the Tribulation. Until then, when God takes them up again, the Jews are under God's judicial blindness (more on this on our Website).

Q.
2...WHY DO CONVERTED JEWS USE THE TERM "MESSIANIC JEW" RATHER THAN CHRISTIAN? I FIND USING THE TERM "JEW" LIKE THIS SETS THEM [OR US] APART.

A. "Messianic Jew" is a non - Biblical term, which has no support in the Bible! This movement has awesome problems, with the Rabbis of the movement seeking to take over Christendom at this period, internationally. They are seeking to Judaize the churches, and Hebrew-ize the English Bibles. Jews are CHRISTIANS if they are born-again; there is no Jew or Gentile in Christ Jesus! Many are not saved, however! See Gal. 3:28; Matt. 23:8 etc. all of Galatians is helpful.

Q.
3...ARE WE TO TREAT CHRISTIAN JEWS "MORE SPECIAL" THAN OTHER BELIEVERS? WHY OR WHY NOT?

A. Of course we should not treat "Jews" as special! ALL are one in Christ! They are no longer Jews, any way, religiously. They are Christians, if saved people in reality, a part of the glorious Body of Christ. Which is far more thrilling than being a Jew, any way.

Q.
4...WHAT ABOUT THE TREATMENT OF JEWS BY NATIONS?

A. The Jewish nation is now in big trouble! They are secular, apostate, ungodly etc. The Bible indicates that they will get so bad that they will accept the Antichrist as being the true "Christ" and he will even set himself up in their Jewish temple at Jerusalem. But the Jews will "wake up" when he has an image of himself made in the temple to be worshipped as God!! This doesn't happen until the middle of the Trib. Sorry I have not got time to do a Bible study here. All is in our Bible College material in the Jewish/Israel section.

the interreligious organisation known as the WORLD CONFERENCE ON RELIGION AND PEACE." (Emphasis added). (Cornelia Ferreira, "One-World Church Expected Next Year", paper written in 1996).

MULTI-DEITY WORSHIP AND WCRP.

At the Melbourne conference, unified prayer rooms were made available for delegates from the Baha'i, Quakers, Church of Christ, Moslems, Buddhists, Salvation Army, Catholic churches and centres, Anglican, many more, where prayers, chants and incantations were offered to a dozen "deities". What, you may well query, were political and academic leaders doing at such a religious gathering? People like The Hon Philip Ruddock MP; Dr. Juliet Sheen an independent human rights consultant, who works with the United Nations; Alan Matheson AM, the International Officer of the Australian Council of Trade Unions; Professor Alan Gilbert Vice-Chancellor of the University of Melbourne; Noor Dean a solicitor, a former member of the deposed Fijian Government; Professor Desmond Cahill, professor of Intercultural Studies at the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology - and Ron Burke General Manager Corporate Relations for the National Australia Bank Group, and others. Interfaith religiosity has become the epoxy which will unite the neo-pagan world under the NWO, it is the Body of the formless One World political power. Interfaith religiosity gives credibility, humanity, warmth to a cold-hearted killer regime, and masks its intentions. It is now politically correct in this one-world community to embrace interfaith religion. It is an absolute must for important political and social events, not only here but globally.

URO - WCRP - RELIGION AND CUL-### TURAL DIVERSITY CONFERENCE.

Since the URO and WCRP and RCDC are all "the same horse different riders" we need to go to the source - URO. Formation of the URO was back in 1995, as Ferreira writes: "Plans for the formation of the UR were first revealed by Bishop Swing at the syncretic service held to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the United Nations Charter. Attending the service in San Francisco's Grace Episcopal Cathedral on June 25, 1995, were representatives of all religions as well as political and spiritual luminaries like Princess Margaret of Great Britain, Anglican Archbishop Desmond Tutu of South Africa, then-President Lech Walesa of Poland and (then) UN Secretary-General Boutros Boutros-Ghali." (p.1. ibid.). " (End of quotes from WCRP conference in Melbourne, Australia, July 1997).

THE AUSTRALIAN CONSTITUTION AN OVERVIEW

The Governor-General is the Queen's representative in Australia. As such, he represents the Head of State in Australia. According to Section 2 of the Constitution:

A Governor-General appointed by the Queen shall be Her Majesty's representative in the Commonwealth, and shall have and may exercise in the Commonwealth during the Queen's pleasure, but subject to this Constitution, such powers and functions of the Queen as Her Majesty may be pleased to assign to him.

In practice, the Governor-General is appointed by the Prime Minister of the day, as the incumbent, Sir William Deane, was appointed by Prime Minister Keating, and his predecessor, Bill Hayden, was appointed by Prime Minister Hawke. In both cases, the appointment was made personally by the Prime Minister. In 1999, Bob Hawke admitted that he did not even consult his Cabinet before making the appointment.

Technically, the appointment is made by "advice" to the Queen. Whilst early Governors-General were appointed directly from Britain, since the 1930s appointments have been made by the government of the day. This followed a major confrontation with the British government in the early 1930s over the appointment of the first Australian-born Governor-General, Sir Isaac Isaacs.

The Governor-General is assigned a number of specific functions in the Constitution:

Section 1:

Queen's Representative.

Section 5:

Appoints sitting times for Parliament, as well as being responsible for its prorogation and dissolution.

Section 19 & 21:

May accept resignations of Senators and advise State Governors of such vacancies.

Section 28:

May dissolve the House of Representatives.

Section 32:

With the Executive Council, may issue writs for House of Representatives elections.

Section 33:

With the Executive Council, may issue writs for by-elections for the House of Representatives.

Section 35:

Can accept the resignation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

BOOK REVIEW

from W. B. Howard.

"BROTHERHOOD OF DARKNESS"

is the title of a new book by Dr. Stanley Monteith of Radio Liberty, USA.

This absorbing work is so readable that I could not put it down, and went through it in one sitting (or lying actually, I was in bed at the time). I started to read it in order to get to sleep at two o'clock in the morning!

There is much info. on the incredible activities of the secret societies across the planet, especially in the USA. These forces are shaping the twenty first century. Our world is in the grip of wicked powers, hidden from the view of the masses. Read material you have never seen before on the Club of Rome, the Trilateral Commission, Skull and Bones and the George Bush family, the Jesuits, the Theosophical Society and much more. Dr Monteith has studied the subject for 38 years.

The sections on the poems by Alfred Lord Tennyson, Winston Churchill and Harry Truman, and Edward Bellamy are worth getting the book for in themselves.

B.K.: Absolutely.

..... SIDE ONE OF TAPE NUMBER TWO .....

D.M.: We are told Dr. Klenck, that this is going to change society. They are going to take back society for Jesus Christ. Is it working, is it succeeding – is there any place where this is changing our communities in society, making people better, making people more god-like?

B.K.: Well, again a lot of this appears good, for instance like one of the groups that is often tied with many of these churches is 'Habitat for Humanity' and the goal is very admirable if you take a needy family and help them to build a home and get them into it. The problem with it is that, in on the local level, people think they are doing a wonderful thing. However, 10% of the money goes to the international group 'Habitat for Humanity International' and they were actually present at the 'Habitat 2' Conference at the United Nations back in Istanbul and so it also is something that is – again it is one of the goals of the United Nations which is 'Shelter Equity' and what they mean is they want to see everybody world-wide to have a home.

Now that's fine, for us Americans it may mean actually putting other people into our homes in order to spread the wealth world-wide and of course we know that the U.N. agenda is all basically global socialism and they want to completely, even the United States – even lower our standard of living and make it even with a global standard of living.

May accept resignations of members of the House of Representatives.

Section 42:

Administers oath or affirmation of allegiance to members of the House of Representatives.

Section 56:

Recommends the appropriation of revenue or moneys to the Parliament.

Section 57: May dissolve both houses of parliament in the event of a deadlock between them.

Section 58: May assent, or withhold assent, to laws passed by Parliament, or reserve laws for the Queen's assent, or return laws to the parliament recommending amendments.

Sections 59-60:

In the event of the Queen disallowing any law, or assenting to a proposed law reserved for her pleasure, the Governor-General may by speech or message notify Parliament of her decision.

Section 61:

Exercises the executive power of the Commonwealth.

Section 62-63:

Chooses and summons members of the Executive Council to hold office during his pleasure and to advise him in the government of the Commonwealth.

Section 64:

May appoint officers (ministers) to departments of State, such officers holding office during his pleasure.

With the Executive Council, appoints Justices of the High Court, and also receives their resignations.

Section 126:

May appoint person or persons to be his deputy or deputies, exercising such powers as he assign, subject to limitations or directions given by the Queen.

Section 128:

May submit a referendum proposal passed by only one house of parliament. Also gives assent to referendum results.

Most of these powers are exercised by the Governor-General on the advice of his ministers, through the Prime Minister of the day.

Those powers relating to the dissolution of parliament and the appointment of ministers are known as reserve powers and are the subject of controversy, particularly since the actions of the Governor-General in dismissing Prime Minister Whitlam in 1975.

THE PURPOSE - DRIVEN CHURCH NIGHTMARE!

COMMENTS ADDED TO THE BEGINNING OF "MARKETING CHRISTIANITY" BY DESPATCH EDITOR...
W. B. HOWARD EXTRACT FROM DESPATCH MAGAZINE VOL. 13:2 [JUNE 2001] ENTIRE MAGAZINE ONLINE

If our readers absorb no more than the following article from the whole of the June Despatch, then they would have done well!

We urge you to take especial note of the following material, as it contains info. which is almost unbelievable! When we listened to the audio tapes from which we have gathered the material herein, I had a strong realization that we were listening to a description of the Antichrist system seeking to obliterate from the earth Biblical Christianity and the true Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ! This is something so innovative and efficient that one is immediately enlightened to the fact that brilliant brains have planned all this out, and that really no group of men could be so blasted clever! Behind this planning an ancient, evil conductor holds the baton to which tune these people are playing. What am I getting keyed up about here? RICK WARREN and the "Purpose-Driven Church" programs for church expansion!!! Also heavily interacting is BILL HYBELS and his church expansion programs. We will give our readers the following transcript, straight from the audios of RADIO LIBERTY, USA, with Dr Stanley Monteith interviewing Robert Klenck, tapes entitled, "Marketing Christianity" One and Two.

The Purpose-Driven Church programs have been designed by a business consultant, who has been working with the international bankers. Robert Klenck reveals a sinister involvement with the Rockefellers. The robbing of the Gospel of such matters as awareness of sin, need to repent and become righteous in God's enabling, the sacrifice of Christ's Blood for remission of sin, separation from the evil world etc is what makes the "success" of the Purpose-Driven Church program possible. Therefore we Bible Christians are encountering a highly effective way of defeating Christianity by means of enticing churches to seek numbers, power, money (from tithes and donations etc), and very large buildings. The enticement includes the dialectic approach which makes "Christians" value "meeting the needs" of an ungodly society, instead of standing firm on the truths of God's Word and obeying His commands - and knowingly preaching unpopular messages which lead to spiritual repentance. The "success" in the world's eyes can be very great by giving way to these business programs, the masses are flocking to be in churches which bring a popular message, give them rock music, lovely buildings and accommodating, pleasant, worldly-wise preachers. These programs are here in Australia, believers. Already in the USA some 150,000 pastors have been trained up in these awesomely powerful brain-washing programs. The most alarming matter presented by Robert Klenck is the revealing of the PROFILING and DATA BASING of congregations for the political powers of the New World Order. Also the COVENANTS which people sign which bind them to the Purpose-Driven Church programs - they will refuse to turn against these Change-Agents because the naïve congregations now you are denying Christ if you are denying us and you are turning your back on Him and so that is a tremendous psychological force that is being used.

D.M.: Now do all the churches require you to sign the covenant? Or is it just certain ones or is this just a standard approach that is being implemented all across the world today? All across America today, I should say.

[ 150,000 PASTORS TRAINED IN "PURPOSE-DRIVEN" PROGRAMMES - USA!]

B.K.: It is a very standard approach. We have heard of church after church that is doing this thing as they bring us their diagrams of their leadership programmes which are either the concentric circles or the other one is that it is a baseball diamond - the four stages of the process - 101 through to 401 - all bases of a baseball diamond.

And so we see a pattern repeated over and over again. Pastor Warren has trained over 150,000 pastors and church leaders in this church growth principle.

D.M.: 150,000? 150,000?

B.K. Yes. And he has also sold more than a million copies of 'The Purpose Driven Church' book.

D.M.: Well, that is a lot of people. Now, how many churches do you think there are in America today that have gotten into this altered form of Christianity? Because it really is a sort of a watered-down Christianity as a form of Christianity - uses a lot of the words of Christianity but of course as far as sin, damnation and the need for a Saviour, that is not the major thrust of the message, is it?

[ CATHOLICS AND JEWS ARE BEING TRAINED ALSO.]

B.K.: Well that is correct, and actually, the organisational management - the style they are using for discipleship is actually crossing not only denominations but is actually crossing faiths so it is seen in Catholicism, we see it in Jewish synagogues, we see it in other faiths as well. So it is obviously not a movement of the Holy Spirit if churches are not moved by the Holy Spirit at all or are completely contrary, for instance, the Jewish synagogue where people are not accepting Christ as their Lord and Saviour.

Clearly this is not a movement of the Holy Spirit but a man made organisational technique and again what the endplay will be is eventually it will be to where you can unify with people of other faiths and in order for this greater goal of world peace in the utopian society. It will water down Christianity where Christianity is no longer salt and light but is actually acceptable to the Muslim, acceptable to the Jew, acceptable to the Mormon; acceptable to all of these faiths, which are not - again - which are not true faith.

D.M.: I do see that this is part of the great apostasy. Are you concerned that this might be part of the great apostasy that is described in the latter days?

B.K.: Absolutely. I believe that it is. It is very wide spread.

D.M.: Do we have any idea? You said over 150,000 or 160,000 people trained - how many churches have gone this way?

B.K.: Huge numbers. I mean huge, huge numbers.

D.M.: You are talking about tens of thousands.

Email: despatch@mail.cth.com.au Web Site: <http://www.despatch.cth.com.au/> formed Bob Buford's mind – he was there in the formative stages of Rick Warren's church – you know the picture is all beginning to 'gel'.

D.M.: Of course we see Gorbachev, as you say, Stephen Rockefeller and Maurice Strong all joining hands together to write The Earth Charter, the plan for the New World with the commandments that will replace the 10 Commandments of old.

B.K.: Yes, and the Hegelian Dialectic is the means of getting – this is actually a form of brain washing and so you just get people doing this process, doing this small group face-to-face interactions where everybody says what they think and what they feel and then at the end everybody reaches a consensus.

D.M.: Now is this what these breakout groups – 101, 201, 301 – are small group/consensus groups?

B.K.: Those are leadership-training groups but then they do require part of the covenants you do have to sign in the covenant signing as you go through is that you do sign a covenant to be committed to purchase a paid-in small groups. And the small groups are facilitated meetings by trained facilitators and they water down the Word of God.

D.M.: Now, why would you have to sign a covenant? I mean, I would think that this is a voluntary thing – you go to church, you go to church because you want to – because you believe in it, but once you sign something – you know – it takes things down the line occur, things you don't agree with, but you have already signed an agreement for things you don't even understand what you are signing into or the implications as to where this is all leading. Isn't this sort of like taking a Masonic oath for things you don't even know what Masonry is all about?

B.K.: Right! Actually, some of the diagrams that they use for the 101, 201 and 301 are actually concentric circles where you start out on the outside and start working your way in which is the structure of many of the secret societies. Like an onion skin where you keep going one layer deeper and deeper into the skin and closer to the core.

Absolutely – and that is one of the things that is much like a cult because the people then feel this great constraint that they cannot leave and so they feel locked in. I have talked with people on the phone about this all the time and they say – 'But I signed'. I say 'what are you going to do now – knowing what you know – you have to either please the Lord or you have to go along with the covenant which you signed that you know is not pleasing to the Lord. He will forgive you for signing that covenant and your breaking it if you are breaking it for all the right reasons.'

D.M.: Well of course this is exactly what happens when they get into Masonry. They are afraid to get out – they have sworn these oaths, all their friends are involved – you know, it is part of their way of life. Suddenly, to have to break with Masonry, you know, means you are breaking with the things that make life so pleasant. Of course, you may come under tremendous pressure if you do leave.

B.K.: Yes, this is the exact same type of thing and however, again they use the psychological argument against you that his background as an orthopaedic surgeon. Dr Monteith introduces Dr. Robert Klenck.

TOPIC: “SELLING CHRISTIANITY”.

There is a conscious, organized effort to change the message and the music of the Christian Church – to make it more acceptable to the world. Well, I always thought Christianity was supposed to transform the world, but of course if you look you can see what's happening today and you look at the statistics on divorce in the church – well, it is just as much in the church as it is outside the church – maybe even more. As far as abortion, as far as so many other things that go on, there is not much difference between the church and society as a whole.

Is that what God intended? I thought that Christianity was supposed to transform individuals and not make them more like the world. One thing that happened, and I think increasingly I hear this from across the country, is that the music of the church has changed and instead of the great hymns of Christendom now we have a rock band and a loud beat because of course, it will appeal to the young people. We justify that because we want to get the young people into the church and that of course we talk about things like sin. Oh we don't want to tell people they are sinners. After all that's going to make them feel bad about themselves and hurt their self-esteem.

In fact, apparently Robert Schuller, who is a very, very successful minister, has said "You know, you would never want to tell them they were a sinner", and so we no longer talk about hell or damnation or the fact that we really need a Saviour – we make ourselves feel good about ourselves and that is going to get us into church. But is it going to change our lives? Is it going to transform society?

Well, we are going to be talking about this. Dr. Klenck has done a lot of work, a lot of study on this and he is one of the most articulate spokesmen on this most important of the subjects.

Bob, (Dr. Klenck.) I thank you for being with us this evening.

(FOR THE BENEFIT OF TRANSCRIPTION, DR. MONTEITH WILL BE IDENTIFIED AS D.M. AND DR. KLENCK AS B.K.)

B.K.: You are very welcome.

D.M.: Bob has worked with us, his wife Tammy has been working with us but she is not going to be with us tonight. She is into a lot of other very, very important issues. But why don't you tell our listeners how you got involved in this. Why have you put the time and study into this and of course, what you found so you just go ahead and just start telling us why you have begun to study this so called "Church Growth Movement" that is to make Christianity more palatable to people and bring them into the church.

B.K.: Back in 1993 is when the Lord drew us to Him and we became saved and then shortly after that we were in a small Baptist Church and this was in 1994. We were baptised there and then the pastor started to bring some changes into the church. He brought in material from Pastor Rick Warren apparently he had gone to some conferences with Pastor Warren and was really touting his material, touting his (Rick Warren's) whole programme and implementing all of it in a very rapid fashion at the church. He (the pastor) was telling us stories about how the little small church was going to grow to huge numbers and also was boosting me into leadership. He wanted me to be, sort of, his right hand man and be close to him from the ground floor and twenty years from now we would be able to look back and look on this huge ministry and say that we had been there, you know, right from the beginning all along.

But quite a few changes started to happen in the church. The music was changing – was part of it, bigger changes that he was doing, he took the pews out of the sanctuary and replaced those with chairs. They restructured, what they called 'discipleship' and they started to put us on tracks to leadership – we had to go through courses and they implemented '101', '201' and '301' courses that they wanted everybody in the church to be involved with the courses and they would do assessments at the end, tests

ing this." That's what he says and yet Schuller, when he was there last October 15th says "I know that he calls himself an atheist, but 11 years ago was one of the most powerful man in the world God used this atheist in a mighty way." He was talking about how Michael had allowed Schuller's programme to be broadcast widely within the Soviet Union.

[ GORBACHEV AND ROBERT SCHULLER.]

The reason that Gorbachev allowed this to go into the Soviet Union is that he knew Communism has nothing to fear from the message that Robert Schuller has to preach.

D.M.: Well of course, the thing is if people are not convicted, they are not going to change. If Christianity is simply a 'do-good' religion, and a 'feel good' about yourself and feel good about other people and want to help other people, that of course is the philosophy – not of the Gospel according to Mark, but according to 'Marx'.

B.K.: Right, that is a good point. The way that Gorbachev fits into all of this and this whole direction that this is heading to is that Gorbachev has his "State Of The World Forum" – my wife was actually able to attend that with a friend Joan Veon last September back at the United Nations Headquarters.

D.M.: What did she run into Joan Paris and Jeannie Solomon (sic) who were there?

B.K.: Yes, she did.

D.M.: They were representing us at Liberty here so you were in good company then.

B.K.: Yes, absolutely. In a small circle of good company and a large circle of bad company.

[ EVIL NEW WORLD ORDER MEN!]

D.M.: Some of the most evil men in the world were there at the World Summit Meeting which was held from September 2nd to I guess 8th or 10th – something like that. The world leaders, the financial and corporate leaders of the world were there along with Ted Turner and certainly Maurice Strong – I don't know whether he is a member of the State of the World Forum but he certainly was there working behind the scenes. He was a speaker, if I am not mistaken. Anyway, basically, Gorbachev is really one of the major players in this whole world spiritual movement because there are strong spiritual under-pinnings of what he says but the spiritualism he is talking about is certainly not the spiritual belief in Jesus Christ, but certainly strong ties into the occult.

[ ROCKEFELLER BROTHERS.]

B.K.: Right, and that is exactly where this all ties in, actually Stephen Rockefeller along with Gorbachev is another one of the authors of the Earth Charter and also the Rockefeller Brothers Fund funded a symposium organised by the Peter F. Drucker Foundation For Non-Profit Profit Management called The Emerging Partnership – New Ways in a New World. So Drucker – this is all about non-profit management and so it is all about getting the non-profits on board towards the New World Order. Gorbachev ties in, Schuller ties in, Drucker ties in – it ties it all in with the leadership networks and who Bob Buford founded the leadership network which is one of the largest church-consulting firms that helps to push this church growth type of movement into the churches. Drucker again

– there is another book recommended by Rick Warren called “Transitioning – Leading Your Church Through Change” and that is written by Dan Southerland and in that book he talks about how his church went from 500 people when he implemented his programme that it dropped to 250 and now he has gone back up to about 3000 and that if he was to do it again, he would trade the 250 people for the church of 3000 in a New York minute. So he could not care less if he divided the church and got rid of the traditionally minded people because once he has this more acceptable gospel, this more acceptable gospel is also – it has a broad appeal.

D.M.: Of course, what about people in the churches – I mean Robert Schuller who I think is probably the prototype of this. He has 4,000 usually in the Crystal Cathedral or 5,000 and two or three thousand outside. I had a friend of mine there who went to see it when they had Gorbachev there and he compared Gorbachev, the murderer of Afghanistan and he compared him with Abraham Lincoln and really praised this brutal man who should be up on more war-crimes trials for aggressive war.

When he was the premier when they were dropping bombs there in Afghanistan, which were shaped like toys, the little kids would pick them up and blow off their arms and legs, a war of attrition and terror carried out against the Afghan people when Michael Gorbachev was the president of or the dictator of Russia. It is the only reason they got out, it was not because of any altruism at all, they lost so many helicopters because we had given these surface-to-air missiles to the Afghans and they could shoot down the helicopter gun ships that were coming in and machine-gunning the civilians. Now that is why they got out but I mean when Robert Schuller invites Michael Gorbachev and compares him to Abraham Lincoln and yet the people were just going along with that. People were standing on their feet and applauding wildly when Gorbachev was introduced to the people.

Certainly Robert Schuller’s message appeals to people across the world and it is not one of sin and redemption – he certainly never talks about sin or that we are sinners saved by grace.

[ HEGELIAN DIALECTIC – DEAN GOTCHER.]

B.K.: Yes, that is exactly right and this is the seduction that is happening in the church. This ‘softened’ message, which does not convict of sin and most of these pastors teach very little about sin. They even change the name of it – they either call it ‘wrong doing’ or ‘bad choices’ or ‘poor choices’, ‘mistakes’ – they also very much minimise the idea of a literal burning hell. So this softened message puts the church to sleep and then the church no longer is able to discern and what this whole Hegelian Dialectic – and that is what Dean Gotcher was teaching us was that repeating this process over and over again – with just a very subtle and slight watering down of it each time gradually puts you to sleep and again the Bible talks about people having their conscience seared with a hot iron. They are no longer able to discern at all.

So you bring in Michael Gorbachev into the church and people are cheering wildly. Here is a quote from Michael – “I am not ashamed to say anywhere in public that I am a communist and believe in the socialist idea. I will die believing this and will pass into the next world believand tests and assessments of us, also required that people sign covenants in order to move on to the next level which of course in the Scripture we are commanded not to sign any covenants because it says that let our yes be yes and our nay be nay any more than this comes of evil.

D.M.: Alright, now of course did you notice that they were sort of changing the structure of the service, in other words – and the minister, instead of coming in a coat and tie was coming in more casual dress and people certainly were encouraged, at least indirectly, to be casual in their approach to the services?

B.K.: Yes, that is a very big part of it as well, is the right to not be intimidating to so called ‘seekers’ – unchurched people – churched and unchurched people trying to bring in more unchurched and again trying to make it so that it was more of a ‘comfortable’ – more of an entertaining type of service.

They started to bring in more drama – actually, even the day that we were baptised – the pastor dramatised the point – actually chained himself to the pulpit – he was chained to the pulpit during the entire service. It wasn’t until somebody actually brought the key – it was ‘Jesus Christ’ and unlocked him from the ‘bondage’ of his chains – things like that.

D.M.: What you are getting was more of entertainment rather than relying upon the Christian message. Entertainment – things that would hold people’s attention, a drama, a video, a television and things of that sort. Is that what they were sort of getting into?

B.K.: Right.

D.M.: What about dance and other things of that sort?

B.K.: Well we weren’t there all that long, so we saw a lot of these being implemented and then we left because – the main reason we left was 2 reasons:

(1) That he was going away from deep Scriptural teaching – much more superficial messages. He would give a hand out which had a few ‘fill in blanks’ and basically once you fill in the four blanks which were on handout, that meant the sermon was over.

D.M.: But of course now, wasn’t this really trying to get people into church – wasn’t the motivation behind it certainly a good one, in other words, that if we can get people into church, why then of course, we can get them the Gospel after that.

B.K.: Ostensibly, that’s what is stated.

D.M.: Of course, weren’t a lot of the courses – what happened in these courses – that you had to take ‘101’, ‘201’ and ‘301’ ?

(D.M. STATES ON THE TAPE THAT THESE COURSE NUMBERS ARE ‘101’, ‘102’ AND ‘103, WHERE IN B.K.’S INTRODUCTION THEY ARE DIFFERENT – HAVE ALTERED THE TRANSCRIPTION TO AGREE WITH B.K. J.S.).

Did that take you into the Gospel itself?

B.K.: Some of it did. Some of it was around the Gospel, but then it was more geared, especially in the ‘301’ course towards ‘spiritual gifts assessments’ where they are actually doing psychological profiles on the people in the congregation and finding out where your strengths and where your weaknesses are and then trying to motivate you to use your areas of strength in ministry. So at the – the nicest way to say it, I guess, was that it was fitting people to the task which was o.k. However, the more sinister side of it is that they are actually doing personality profiling on people and data basing people and sharing this information with other agencies.

D.M.: Other agencies – within the church, of course?

[THE GOVERNMENT]

B.K.: Well no, Governmental agencies.
D.M.: Wait a minute now, why would the church share anything with the government agency?

B.K.: Well, in order to first maintain 501C3 tax exempt status and we are seeing this more and more as the church is being partnered with the government so called 'faith based' organisations in order to dole out social programmes for the U.S. government. Both political parties have been involved with that, currently President Bush is pushing hard for this.

D.M.: Jesse Jackson, of course has been using that scam for a long time. He did very, very well. In fact, his mistress was very happy because he was paying for her salary and her accommodations out of the money he had apparently, most of it coming from Government grants to his multiple ministries. But be that as it may. Of course, does something like this work? In other words, does it have an impact on people beginning to come to the church more and more? Did the church begin to grow?

B.K.: It did begin to grow but I would not call it good growth. The youth group was the biggest amount of growth and the kids that were involved were pretty rebellious youth and were not really being challenged in the youth groups to live Godly lives.

D.M.: But of course, they were coming to church, weren't they and at least hearing something about Jesus Christ? Or were they just sort of coming to church because it was entertaining?

B.K.: For the most part, it was entertaining and they did youth trips and did ice-skating and various areas that they would pay for with the church's funds that was certainly a drawing card. Very little with respect to exposure to the Gospel, again really the command to lead Godly lives and I remember even one episode where one of the fathers in the church took his 16 year old daughter down to have a tattoo for her sixteenth birthday. And that was sort of common type of things we saw going on there.

D.M.: But of course, the children were entertained and it at least got them out of the streets. Did they sort of justify that at least they were not just hanging around in gangs; at least they were coming to church? Was that the type of rationale for what was going on?

B.K.: Right! That was a lot of the rationale – which was a very pragmatic approach but unfortunately, again, as Christians, we are supposed to be in the world but not of the world and we are supposed to be again salt and light to the world. We are supposed to be different and these kids were not being told to hold up that standard and not being pushed or convicted at all of their activity to change and to live Godly lives.

D.M.: Of course, you left the church –

again both of them acknowledge that he was with them in their formal stages and helping to influence them with respect to beginning their churches. In fact, Rick Warren, he said that three people who supported his church – he said Tom Patterson was one of the strongest supports along with Peter Drucker and Bob Buford (sic) of our purpose-driven church strategy in the formative years of Saddleback – so that is a quote from Warren. He said he was there right from the start.

D.M.: Buford – that name is familiar – where does he come in? Who is he?

B.K.: Right, he is a gentleman, he is actually the first president of the Drucker Foundation for Non Profit Management. He is the owner of Buford Television in Texas and he is a large businessman, an entrepreneur and he also wrote a book called "Half Time". In that book he actually refers to Peter Drucker as the man who formed my mind and he says that in his office he has two main books – he has a Bible and he has Peter Drucker's book. He uses his Bible for spiritual things and he uses Drucker's book for worldly things – which my Bible says we are supposed to use the Bible for all of our affairs.

D.M.: I certainly would not want to argue with you there. Of course, then this idea has really caught hold. My understanding is that there are really tens of thousands of churches that have taken on this concept and of course it has really done – in sort of a stealth matter – they don't really tell the congregation what they are going to do, they just sort of do it and one day the minister arrives without a coat – still got a tie and a white shirt on and then before long, maybe a month or two, he doesn't even have a tie on and then it is really done very subtly.

Don't they change the music very subtly – everything is done so that the people really won't understand what is happening.

B.K.: Right, the other thing they do, is that they will split the service and they will have a traditional service for the elderly people who don't want to go into these changes and then they will have a second, more contemporary service for the youth. So the pastor, in between services will take off his coat and tie and dress more casually for the second service. So there is a separation of the elderly people in the church and eventually they will either scatter or die off and then they can go to the contemporary service for everybody.

D.M.: All right, so we have seen this sort of thing happen. Is there a different message that's preached between the two services? In other words, there is one that is parallel to the traditional message where sinners are saved by grace or is it sort of beginning to move into the same more – say – acceptable. I was going to say more 'watered down'. Say acceptable to society type of service, are both services pretty much the same – one traditional and one is more acceptable.

[ GET RID OF BIBLICAL CHRISTIANS TO GAIN NUMBERS.]

B.K.: I believe that one remains more traditional. You have to realise that a lot of the elderly and more traditional people in the church are also a lot of the larger tithers to the church and so they don't want to change things too dramatically as far as those people are concerned because they can lose a lot of their financial base. Although in some of the books

“MARKETING CHRISTIANITY” & “Purpose Driven Church”

Transcript of Radio Liberty Audios

START OF SIDE 2 OF TAPE 1.

D.M.: Bob, you were beginning to tell us about Peter Drucker, a humanist, apparently, who believes in basic humanist concepts who decided that he wanted to help the church to be more effective in meeting society's needs, so let's pick up the story from there.

B.K.: I was able to dig up his quote, and his quote is that the non-profit sector is where management today is most needed, where systematic principle, theory-based management can yield the greatest results fastest. Just think of the enormous problems facing the world - poverty, health care, education, international tension, and the need for managed solutions becomes loud and clear. So again he believes he can solve all of these world problems through managed solutions – and he never mentions Christ. He does claim to be a Christian. He claims to be an Episcopalian Christian and actually even in Christianity Today it says if you examine his writings that his writings say little other than that about his faith, in other words, he is tends to keep his 'light' under a bushel.

Clearly there is another quote that he has also, where he talks about the social universe. He says that the social universe has no natural laws and it is thus subject to continual change and he says then that what is thought to be factual today can then become misleading and actually completely confusing to you in no time at all. So he says as far as the social uni- verse is concerned, as far as moral absolutes are concerned that there are no hard and fast rules – there are no moral absolutes. Those are hardly the words of a Christian man.

D.M.: No they certainly are not. In fact, that is increasingly the way the world is going – there is no right, there is no wrong, there is simply shades of grey as it were. And of course Christendom stands on the fact that there are absolutes, there is a right and a wrong because there is a God who has laid out His rules for mankind. But we seem to be getting away from that increasingly today and we make excuses for the criminal. We seem to be much more concerned about animal abuse than we are about taking the life of unborn children in the womb. A gentleman was recently sent to prison for 9 months because he had mistreated cats and I disapprove of mistreating animals but nothing is ever said about tearing living human beings and parting them from the womb. So there is something wrong about the way that society is going and you would think the church would of course be leading efforts to bring these things up and yet of course, many times the silence of the church is deafening.

[PETER DRUCKER AND WILLOW CREEK AND SADDLEBACK CHURCH.]

So why don't you pick up the idea now – how did Peter Drucker get associated with Willow Creek and Saddleback Churches? And Is there a relationship?

B.K.: I don't know just how he got affiliated with them in the first place, although do you know what has happened to it since you have left – has it grown since then or is it still pretty much like it was?

B.K.: It has grown, and then actually the pastor recently has left to become a church planter. I think he has gone to Ohio or somewhere to begin planting churches.

D.M.: All right, now of course you have had to find another church and did you eventually find a church where you felt comfortable?

B.K.: We did for a while, found for about 5 years and clearly the teaching there is much more – well it is through the Bible and that is what we were really pushing the pastor to do. We had, in the church where we got saved we had been [UNABLE TO TRANSCRIBE.....] expositionally and unfortunately that small church folded and that is why we went to the second church. But we had a thirst for expositional teaching.

D.M.: By expositional teaching – what, just the Word of God?

B.K.: By verse and then along, and then going in depth to what other verses would correspond with other areas of the Bible that would correspond with the verse that we would go through.

D.M.: But of course, you were adhering to this concept that the Bible is the Word of God, the infallible Word of God and you wanted to get into that rather than perhaps the entertainment and the other sort of 'good feeling' part that comes with – is this what you call a 'seeker friendly' church?

B.K.: Yes.

[A BRAINWASHING PROGRAM SWEEPS CHURCHES!]

D.M.: So then what happened? You have left this church and you find another church. What motivated you to begin studying the 'seeker friendly' movement at Willow Creek and Saddle Back and all of this movement, which really is sweeping Christendom today?

B.K.: Correct. Right, we left first because we were being manipulated and pushed into leadership which we did not feel we were being led into by the Holy Spirit but in this 101, 201, 301 programme you needed to do it and there was very much pressure involved in it and we felt that we were not led by the Spirit.

Secondly, right, the lack of teaching of the Word of God so we really wanted to get into learning the Word of God and because we believe in the sufficiency of the Word – we believe that the Holy Spirit will lead us into ministry and if He sees fit and you don't need this man made programme to do that. And a few years later, about 2-1/2 years later, we heard a man speak – Mr. Dean Gotcher.

D.M.: Dean is a good friend of ours and why don't you tell our listeners what Dean said that impacted on you?

B.K.: Right, well he taught us about his study which is about the Hegelian Dialectic and what the Hegelian Dialectic is – most simply stated as – a synthesising of two opposites and so in a 'seeker friendly' church what you would see, is believers admixed with unbelievers and they would synthesise – that is coming to consensus where truth becomes somewhat in the middle and so basically what happens is the believer ends up moved very slightly away from his original position of moral absolute – the seeker or the unbeliever is moved slightly more towards faith and the people who are doing this movement think that is good enough and eventually they will come to faith through this process. But the thing that ends up sacrificed really is the truth of the Word of God, when it is proclaimed and when it is stated it is a fact and it is not questioned then some people, even when Jesus spoke, He talked about some believed, some scratched their heads and other ones turned away. That was the way that He always taught. He always taught it factually and it would either convict people or it would not convict people. It was never watered down or softened which was what the result is in this type of situation.

D.M.: Don't you think that people, ministers, who have taken this – I firmly believe that they love the Lord, I think that they really want to be effective and want to be champions of the Word but isn't this more sold in a pattern that it is a technique that you hope will bring people to the Lord just by their association and coming to church and even if they are there, they will gradually begin moving towards Christianity. Not necessarily knowing the Word, not necessarily studying the Word, but it will sort of just come about.

B.K.: Exactly, exactly. So he spoke about this process and he stated that the church growth movement is based upon this process and so that's what struck me, I said, well this somehow – this process was being used in this church that we came out of – I don't know how, but somehow this ties in and that is what sparked my interest to investigate what was the roots of this whole idea – who were the foundational thinkers behind it, what where they thinking and what was their final goal? That is what has spurred by study.

Endtime Ministries...Christian Resource Centre [P.O.B. 238, Landsborough.Q. 4550]

[HOW TO SUCCEED?]

D.M.: So, what have you found as you begin looking into it and I know you have done a great deal of work and I appreciate so much the material you sent me. Why don't you just talk to the people in the audience because most of them are really unaware of the fact that this is a major movement that is sweeping Christendom today – it is based upon teaching you how to succeed sort of like Dale Carnegie or many of the motivational psychology programmed introduced into corporations and the business world. How to be more successful, how to accomplish what the corporation wants to accomplish. That is at least what they sell you in the business world.

Why don't you go into the background of what you have uncovered and how this is being, as it were, sold to so many good people, and many of the good people, I am convinced, really do love the Lord but they seem to put success before the Scriptures, as it were.

B.K.: Yes, absolutely. You have described it well because it is the exact same framework and type of philosophy that the total quality management in the work place is based on that the motivational speakers and self-esteem speakers pronounce. They really stress measurable results so they look at measurable results as far as baptisms, number of people in the church, that is the reason they put the chairs in stead of the pews because they can count their membership each Sunday and see as to whether or not they are getting more people in the church.

They obviously study tithing patterns, in fact, one of the consultant groups called the Leadership Network even have sev-

"According to New York Times News Service writer Bill Keller, Pravada and Izvestia on September 17, 1987, reported that Mikhail Gorbachev "called for giving the United Nations expanded authority to regular military conflicts, economic relations, environmental protection and...also called for enhancing the power of the afflicted International Court of Justice to decide international disputes." In this same year (1987). Gorbachev's Perestroika was published, in which he revealed that "the essence of perestroika lies in the fact that it UNITES SOCIALISM WITH DEMOCRACY and revives the Lenin concept of socialism construction both in theory and in practice...We want more socialism."

stepping onto that bridge on one end while at the same time Hindus, Buddhists, and pagans of every stripe are stepping onto it from the other. If we are indeed in the last days, as seems apparent, it will not be long until all sides will meet in the middle."

From Al Dagar, editor and publisher of " Media Spotlight":

"Unity in Diversity. Disregard of biblical truth is essential to bringing Christianity into unity with all religions. Particularly, if Satan can get the Church to believe that there are other gods besides the one true God (even 'lesser' gods such as man himself), he'll have weakened its resolve to challenge the religious unification of the human race.

It isn't important to Satan that everyone believes the same thing or belongs to the same religious institution. All that's necessary is that the Gospel be diluted sufficiently so as to render it ineffective.

Unity in Diversity is the goal toward which the world's religions are working. In some churches, unity in diversity is still narrowly defined, but the purpose is to join in fellowship everyone who names Jesus as Lord regardless of doctrine.

This disregard for doctrine, and subsequent acceptance of every aberration that goes by the name of Christian, is necessary for the eventual unification of all religious thought. Therefore, opposition to deception in the Church is being stifled under the pretense that those who expose deceivers are sowing discord among brethren and hindering unity."

WHAT ARE OTHER INVESTIGATORS SAYING ?

It would be wise as this juncture of history to remind ourselves that Christian discernment ministries across the globe are alerting the Lord's people (and others who will listen) to the imminent global conquest of the religious / political New Age. Some quotes from various sources will give us a clearer picture:

From Gary Kah, internationally respected author and researcher :

"The growing involvement of the Vatican and its allies in politics and religion reminds one of Alice Bailey's [Luciferian, New Age leader] prediction that the new world order would be ushered in with the help of a universally-accepted church. Bailey explained that the New Age would, rest upon the foundation of a newly interpreted and enlightened Christianity ... being universal in nature." The occult prophetess also stated that there were no major distinctions "between the One Universal Church (Catholicism), the sacred inner Lodge of all true Masons, and the innermost circles of the esoteric societies." She indicated that they would all be working together through a global governing body to achieve their goal. (Kah. "The New World Religion." p.p. 243 Pub. Hope International Publishing ).

From Dr. Stanley Monteith, who has studied the New World Order for 40 years. From Radio Liberty:

"Mikhail Gorbachev was the dictator of the USSR and the director of the Soviet KGB before he came to the United States. Maurice Strong, Stephen Rockefeller, and Mikhail Gorbachev wrote the Earth Charter, which calls for a world government and a new spirituality. Gorbachev's State of the World's Forum meetings always have an underlying theme of occultism.

ration among the Different Religions". It brought together 200 persons belonging to some 20 religious traditions. 28 Buddhists from different countries were present and took an active part in the deliberations and in the writing of the Final Message (we already have that!) which stressed the importance of education for promoting understanding, cooperation and mutual respect. This message lists some of the ways and means by which each religious community can educate its respective members: formation of conscience, cultivation of a spiritual life (e.g. through prayer, meditation and mindfulness according to the practice of each religious tradition) and the provision of objective information about different religions especially in textbooks and through the mass media. 6. As Christians we join our hearts to yours and pray that the New Millennium which we have just begun may bring lasting peace for all. Happy Vesakh/ Hanamatsuri.

eral resources as to how to maximise the amount of tithings.

D.M.: Wait on a minute, I thought the Holy Spirit, or our Lord was supposed to motivate us to give. In other words, we are to give, you know, what we felt motivated to give but we are being manipulated to give to the church?

B.K.: Oh yes, absolutely, there is a book '44 Ways to Maximise – increase giving – in your church. There is many ... by George Barnard (sic) and other materials by John Maxwell all about maximising the tithe and actually studying different ways getting an offering, getting a pledge, getting a pledge and an offering – they study all types of ways to again to maximise that because that is one of the measurable results.

D.M.: Now, how would you go about getting people to tithe?

[CONSULTANTS]

B.K.: One of the things in these churches, if it is a smaller church and a consultant comes they will recommend that you build a fellowship hall first because if you build a fellowship hall first, then you can appeal to your congregation that we need funds to get a sanctuary and people – that really tugs at the heart strings stronger if you build the sanctuary first. Then it is much more difficult to get people to either pledge more money to get a fellowship hall because they feel that a fellowship hall is more of a 'frill' whereas a sanctuary is a necessity so they actually plan that on purpose.

D.M.: In other words, this is basically some sort of a business management concept.

[ A UNITY OF NAMES.]

B.K.: Very much a business management concept – one of the major foundational thinkers – is one of the major thinkers in business management and that is Mr.

Peter Drucker (sic). Peter Drucker, he is one of the three main people who helped in building Rick Warren's Saddleback Church, he is also involved with Willow Creek, which is Bill Hybel's Church in Illinois. Saddleback Church is in ... California. Those are the two major sister churches, I would say, and they both actually are based on thinking from Robert Schuller and they admit they gathered information from him on how to start their churches up. And so Robert Schuller of the Crystal Cathedral – they all began their churches by taking community surveys – surveying the community in what they wanted to get out of a church and then tailoring their church around those community needs and wants.

Rick Warren even admits that he was polling the people in his community that if the person said they were either actively attending the church or were a believer, then he stopped asking any more questions because he didn't want to colour the survey with those opinions. So he wanted to tailor his church only to the needs of lost sinners.

D.M.: O.K. Well that's good though – so if you want to get the lost sinners into the church, don't we?

B.K.: Right, although the church is supposed to be for the perfecting of the saints, for the building up and edifying of the saints rather than for meeting the needs of the unbelievers and it is all even based on Abraham Maslow's hierarchy of needs which are basically the three lusts described in the Bible – the lust of the eyes, the lust of the flesh and the pride of life. Those are the basic hierarchy of needs though you are then tailoring your church after those types of needs.

D.M.: But of course, you do want to get the lost people into the church, don't you? In other words, or perhaps do you want the Lord to motivate them to come or the Holy Spirit to cause them to want to seek for the Word and the truth?

Email: despatch@mail.cth.com.au Web Site: <http://www.despatch.cth.com.au/>
Publish: "Beauty for Ashes" 4 issues @ $15p.a. [Despatch 4 issues @ $30 p.a.]

[HUMAN MANAGEMENT]

B.K.: Again it is all a human management style as opposed to something that is led by the Holy Spirit whereas, right, the typical thing would be that your church would invite somebody who was an unbeliever and you would invite them on a individual basis and you would be moved by the Holy Spirit to preach to them and tell them the Word and invite them to church and they would come in. But they would be coming in to the church, which is tailored around the feeding of the Word as the most important thing. In fact, we are even taught that the pastor who labours in the Word is worthy of double honour because dealing with the Word is so important.

So that would be the environment that somebody would come into as opposed to an environment where the message is going to be minimised and softened so as to make it so that it is unoffensive.

D.M.: All right now, of course this Peter Drucker that you speak of, a management consultant and he works with big corporations, major business corporations.

B.K.: His management school is over here at Claremont Graduate University would be only about 10 miles away from us, actually says that his management style is humanistic and that he believes that it is a human enterprise and the humanist manifesto is the absolute opposite or antithesis of Christianity. They deny creation, they embrace evolution, they assert that religion is only involved – interactions between man and his environment, in other words, that man basically made is up of his own thinking. They deny the supernatural and they basically – their whole goal is a utopia on earth which is everybody getting along, everybody having freewill to do everything that they want to which includes free abortion rights, freedom to have euthanasia, free sexuality and basically creating a utopian earth in the absence of God. That is the humanist agenda and that is actually the foundational thinker that Peter Drucker is.

D.M.: But then of course if you wanted to apply these concepts – not the humanist concept is such that you describe but this technique towards expanding the church. Why would he do that? You would not think that a humanist, if he is indeed simply a humanist, would not be that interested in helping the church.

B.K.: Well again what he is helping the church do is that he is actually helping the church fit into this utopian goal. So he believes that the church can be an agent by which this end is accomplished, and he says specifically that organisations – he says to consider all the problems facing the world – look at world poverty, look at social inequalities and all of the bad things that happen. He says then managed solutions – is imperative that managed solutions be used in order to achieve these types of goals.

D.M.: Sort of like faith-based partnership – the government uses the church to reach its goal of government taking care of people, but of course the church fits into that.

MESSAGE TO BUDDHISTS

FOR FEAST OF VESAKH

FROM CARDINAL ARINZE,
(Despatch Comment: High profile candidate for the papacy on the death of John Paul III!)

COUNCIL FOR INTERRELIGIOUS DIALOGUE

VATICAN CITY, APR. 30, 2001.-

The feast of Vesakh, the most important for Buddhists, is celebrated May 7 in countries that follow the Theravada tradition. The feast marks the principal events of the life of Buddha. Here is the text of the message from Cardinal Francis Arinze, president of the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue, on the occasion of the feast.

* * *

Dear Buddhist Friends,

1. On behalf of the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue I am happy to offer again this year hearty congratulations to all Buddhists on the occasion of Vesakh/Hanamatsuri. It is my prayer that this annual feast may bring joy and serenity to the hearts of all Buddhists throughout the world.

2. This year 2001 has been proclaimed by the United Nations as "The International Year of Dialogue between Civilizations". This gives an opportunity to reflect on the foundations of dialogue, on its consequences and on the fruit which humanity may harvest from it. The dialogue of civilizations, the dialogue of cultures and the dialogue between religions are nothing less than human encounters whose purpose is to build up a civilization of love and peace. We are all called to promote such dialogue (by whom?) according to its distinctive forms in order to foster greater appreciation of other cultures and religions. 3. During their long histories both Christianity and Buddhism have developed particular ways of expressing themselves in distinct cultural forms. These differences may sometimes have been obstacles to dialogue in the past but they should be so no longer. Without ignoring our differences, and with utmost respect for the demands of truth, (They just have!) let us recognize the treasures of each other's tradition. By means of dialogue and cooperation we can become more keenly aware of each tradition and together make a significant contribution to humanity.

4. Following upon the message of His Holiness Pope John Paul II for the World Day of Peace 2001, I wish to invite all people of good will to cooperate in building the civilization of love. To do this, His Holiness says, we need "to overcome all ethnocentric selfishness." (read "Biblical Fundamentalism") This will make it possible "to combine regard for one's own identity with understanding of others and respect for diversity. Fundamental in this respect is the responsibility of education ... (which) has a particular role to play in building a more united and peaceful world. It can help to affirm that integral humanism, open to life's ethical and religious dimension, which appreciates the importance of understanding and showing esteem for other cultures and the spiritual values present in them" 5. I would like to recall the Interreligious Assembly, organized in 1999 by our Council, which took as its theme "On the Eve of the Third Millennium: Collabora-dren. The problem for the Church is one of perception. Homosexuality is not a problem in itself; the important point is the sexual maturity of the priests."

He said the Church had introduced psychological assessments for all candidates in which they were asked about their sexuality.

"What we want to find out is whether they are able to make free, moral decisions about their lifestyle."

The programme claims that there are many practising homosexuals in seminaries who conceal their sexuality. It includes interviews with ex-students of the English College in Rome, where the Archbishop of Westminster, Cardinal Cormac Murphy-O'Connor, was rector in the 1970s. Chris Higgins and Dr Dennis Caulfield, who were seminarians there between 1996 and 1999, claim that students were reprimanded for calling each other by girls' names. Mr Higgins, now a probation officer, was ordained a priest despite his relationship with Dr Caulfield, who had left the seminary to become a doctor. Mr Dowd, 41, was a friar at Blackfriars in Oxford from 1981 to 1983 when Fr Timothy Radcliffe, now Master of the Dominicans, was prior. He left after falling in love with an ex-friar who visited the priory for supper.

Dowd says:

"It was love at first sight across the refectory table."

The Catholic Media Office questioned whether the programme was helpful, adding:

"It is an issue which seminary rectors are talking about."

JOHN XXIII'S REMAINS TO BE DISPLAYED ON PENTECOST IN A BRONZE AND GLASS COFFIN IN

St. Peter's Square

VATICAN CITY, APR. 30, 2001.-

Blessed John XXIII's incorrupt body will be displayed during Mass in St. Peter's Square on June 3, Pentecost Sunday, the Vatican announced.

On that day, the anniversary of the "good Pope's" death, "the mortal remains of the blessed, placed in a bronze and glass coffin, will be exposed in St. Peter's Square during a Mass, presided over by the Holy Father," Vatican spokesman Joaquin Navarro-Valls said in a statement today. "At the end of the celebration, the coffin will be taken to St. Peter's Basilica and exposed all afternoon, for the veneration of the faithful, before the altar of the Confession," the statement said.

On March 27, Cardinal Virgilio Noe, archpriest of the Vatican basilica, confirmed that the body of John XXIII was incorrupt. The body was examined in January in preparation for moving it from the Vatican Grottoes to St. Peter's Basilica.

He had the same expression he bore when he died June 3, 1963, Navarro-Valls said. However, the discovery of incorruptibility does not necessarily signify a miracle. Vincenzo Pascali, professor of legal medicine at the Catholic University of Rome, explained that the process of formalin, to which the Pope's body was subjected, preserved his tissues from deterioration. In addition, the body was protected by three containers, which kept out oxygen.

Navarro-Valls announced that, at the end of the ceremony, John XXIII's remains will be placed in St. Jerome's altar in St. Peter's Basilica. The altar, John XXIII's favorite, is undergoing renovation to receive the remains.

"TO DIALOGUE OR NOT TO DIALOGUE - THAT IS THE QUESTION" !

DESPATCH OVERVIEW OR THE DEAN GOTCHER MATERIAL

The society we live in, as global citizens, has become predominately a DIALECTIC society. In a brief outline perhaps we can grasp enough of this kind of reasoning to be able to flee from the trap that has been set before us all. GOD will aid the understanding, and HE loves us and will enlighten and sustain all who endeavor to escape Satan's clever delusion which is as old as the serpent saying to Eve,

"Hath God said?" ( Genesis 3:1).

For those who want to delve deeper we have a two hour video which can be sent to you for ten dollars posted. The speaker is an expert in this field, Dean Gotcher of the USA.

A CHART WHICH CAN SET US OFF ON THE SUBJECT: SEE PAGE 24 THIS ISSUE BY DEAN GOTCHER OF I.A.R. IN THE U.S.A. THIS IS BETTER UNDERSTOOD AFTER WATCHING HIS VIDEO, WHICH HAS BEEN CHANGED FROM NTSC TO PAL FOR US ALREADY.

DESPATCH ... OVERVIEW ...

Basically what we are facing is a social mindset, affecting every area of our interaction with the unsaved world. Education, churches, politics, the medical profession, the business world etc, all are involved in general fall away into a "win-win" dialogue or a RELATIONSHIP/FEELINGS interaction. Christianity is a FACTS interaction with God. He is the One Who lays down the facts which are to control our lives. We are to stand by these facts, not CHANGE in order to please, accommodate or appease men. The word "change" is an interesting one indeed, cropping up everywhere one looks. A former speaker at our seminars, Laurie Addison, once did a study of this "change" phenomenon in the Christian churches, and was amazed by the books and material coming through which brought this idea to congregations. The "change" concept is needed to bring about consensus, agreement with others, in order to bring "Conflict Resolution" in a New Age world.

* WE HAVE A 'CONFLICT RESOLUTION' EXPOSE BOOKLET AVAILABLE ONLINE.

To not "change" means we will be branded as "intolerant", "divisive", "dogmatic", "unloving", "hateful" or "peace breakers." Yet, God does not change, His Word abides the same forever. "Forever, O Lord, Thy word is settled in heaven." Psalm 119:89. The global New Age is saying, "there are absolutely no absolutes!" But God says in the Bible that His Truth is absolute! Dear friends, there IS absolute truth, let no man deceive you on this score.

Then what must we do? We must not deviate from our position, we must believe God and stand there! No moving for anyone, no matter how people "feel" or what they "think." The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, we are not here to try to please mere men! (Proverbs 1:7.) God did not leave us here, after we were saved, to try and

'CLIQUES OF GAY PRIESTS ARE DIVIDING CHURCH

By Victoria Combe,

Catholic Herald

THE growing number of homosexual men training for the Roman Catholic priesthood is creating "divisive cliques" of gay and straight students, the rector of a leading English seminary says.

Fr Kevin Haggerty, rector of St John's seminary in Womersley, Surrey, says: "It would seem to me that sub-cultures are a danger. They are inappropriate for the priesthood and contrary to the openness required for a priest.

"Fr Haggerty raises the issue in a Channel 4 documentary, Queer and Catholic, to be broadcast next Saturday. The presenter, Mark Dowd, a former Dominican friar who is gay, claims that the priesthood is becoming a "gay profession" like hairdressing.

Speaking to The Telegraph yesterday, Fr Haggerty said:

"I don't think we can avoid the issue any more. A lot of people's gut reactions to this issue are not rational. They immediately think of the risk of abuse of chil-

Templeton's message is not Christ's but his own opinion. This is the message of the Parliament of world religions in 1993, this is what interfaith meetings is all about as well as the world Council of Churches. Disregard the differences for unity and peace.

Norman Vincent Peale has called Templeton "The greatest layman of the Christian church in our time" This he attributes to a man who is an evolutionist, pantheist and anti Christian. (jacket of Discovering the laws of Life 1994)

The prize is for contributing toward religious progression is antithetical to Christianity which is absolute truth without ecumenical development to other religions. The first Templeton prize went to Mother Teresa in 1973. Leon Joseph cardinal Suenens who was a pioneer in the charismatic renewal in 1976. They have been Muslims, Hindus, and Buddhist leaders that have accepted this prize as well as many evangelicals and even atheists (how this can fit with progress in religion I have no idea). Christians such as Billy Graham in 1982, Bill Bright 1996 and more recently Charles Colson. In so doing even unknowingly join to endorse his development of an ecumenical religion.

While the prize money was used for evangelism, no correction or rebuke was said toward the concepts that Templeton promotes, instead he is commended. To be silent in the face of error of this magnitude is to be a spiritual ostrich. We need to question why would Templeton give a gift to evangelicals when he is aware of the Christian message. The only reasonable explanation is that he finds it necessary to make inroads into the Church and have endorsement to his project. We need to pray for those involved to have discernment and boldness.

What matters is that even if he is preaching the gospel he is throwing dirt on it by doing fake healer tricks like Morris Cerrulo and Benny Hinn as seen on the HBO special. What matters is that he further muddies the gospel when he hangs around with Word-Faith teachers and takes money from them in support of his ministry.

What matters is that he buries the gospel with a false impartation that was never mandated or taught in Scripture. In fact in Exodus it is made very clear that our anointing (pictured in the oil) is for each individual alone and attempted impartation of the true anointing of the Holy Spirit is an abomination to the Lord. It also cannot be done "by" human hands because the Holy Spirit of God is sovereign and moves where He wills, not at the command of people. The few times during Pentecost when the Spirit was given separately from salvation He indwelt the new believers "at" the laying on of hands, not "by" the laying on of hands. The fact that no power transfer was possible "by" the Apostles became evident when Simon Magus tried to buy the power for himself and was roundly rebuked. And finally, what matters is that Bonnke completely covers over the gospel when he adds the Word-Faith "confession" doctrine of demons.

We can only pray that Reinhard Bonnke will repent of all the false doctrines and false healings he has done, leading millions of Two Thirds world peoples away from the true Gospel message and into deadly error. Is Bonnke a minister of the Gospel today?

THE TEMPLETON PRIZE FOR RELIGIOUS EXCELLENCE.

"John Marks Templeton has become famous for offering a million dollars from his religious research center that is developing progress in religion. This prize has become one of the most prestigious Ecumenical awards today. Robert Schuller in his Possibilities magazine put his picture on the front cover and the inside article has Schuller stating the Christ Spirit dwells within everybody whether the person knows it or not. "Nothing exists except God."

(Possibilities, 1986 summer p.8-12)

Templeton has been noted for saying "I am hoping to develop a body of knowledge about God that doesn't rely on ancient revelations or scripture. (the bible). The main purpose of the Templeton foundations is to encourage enthusiasm for accelerating discovery and progress in spiritual matters"

(the Humble approach p135-139)

He goes on to say the heart of true religion is the willingness to see truths in other religions. The Persian scriptures claim, "whatever road I take joins the highway that leads to thee. Broad is the carpet God has spread. (ibid. 35-36,45) Contrary to his broad road it was Jesus who said he alone was the way said the road is narrow and few find it. (MT.7:13) To this Templeton says "No one should say that God can be reached by only one path. " ibid. p.46,55)

see how we could fit His Truth into other people's opinions. He left us here to obey His Truth, and tell others about it. God HATH SAID, ye old serpent! Here is what God declares to the intellectual change-agents of the New Age:

"Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; But ye have set at naught all my counsel, and would none of my reproof: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you, Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me: For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Lord: They would none of my counsel; they despised all my reproof. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices."
 (Proverbs 1:24-31).

EXAMPLES:

How can feelings instead of facts change us? How can a transition into a "feelings" One World mindset destroy our stand and obedience to God's Word? This is a big question, with many aspects, but let us look at some simple examples. A man knows the Bible says that adultery is wrong, but he goes by his feelings instead of God's unchanging facts. He leaves his wife because he "loves" another woman. A homosexual couple moves next door to a Christian family. They find the couple gentle and considerate. In the end they get to know them well and change their minds about homosexuality, because the Christian family "feels" that the homosexual men are such nice people! It can't be wrong for them to be together, they then reason, the men "love and need" each other. Any way, the Christians suppose, the majority of people in society today "think" homosexual relations are OK! Can you see how God's FACTS can be denied by going by "feelings" and human reasoning? Satan wants us all to deny God's Truth for the sake of relationships and "tolerance." Isn't that the way it was in the Garden of Eden? Satan tempted Adam to deny God's facts (thou shalt NOT eat of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil) so that he could please Eve in relationship.

The temptation is great in the 21st century to move with the relationship temptation! How does it work? You are in an ecumenical church that meets with the Roman Catholic Church, and the Seventh Day Adventist's Church. Your pastor insists, "we have our doctrine, so have these other churches. At least we can love them and be with them, they are Christians too, just like us. They just have slightly different doctrines. Dogmas should never separate Christians who love the Lord! And there are such lovely people in those churches!" What will you do, move by feelings or by facts? See God's Word on this in 11 Corinthians 6:14-18. Who are you out to please, God or man?

Here is another one. You know what God's Word says on a subject, you go to a Bible study. The group is strong, you are the only one standing against a belief that is being pushed at the study. You know your facts, you are right and they are wrong, according to God's Bible. Will you stand with God's Truth, or will you compromise in order to “fit in” and please the church people? Will you try to see “eye-to-eye” and dialogue with them in order to have a “win-win” situation going? Will you “agree to disagree”? Will you think it is better to be popular and a good fellow, rather than risk being branded “intolerant” and “divisive”? Move now into the syncretism of all the world’s religions. The United Nations wants us to accept and “love” others, to be “tolerant” and have unity. The One World Church operates and gains impetus with “dialogue”; which must reach “consensus” eventually. This is to be done so that we can agree, have good relationships, understand each other’s beliefs – and eventually form all-encompassing beliefs and values which are agreeable to everyone. Sounds good, if you have NO absolute Truth! But, we Christians cannot go that way at all. NO dialogue can be tolerated about God’s declared and absolute Truth- ever. Where will you be in this New World? Standing firm in God’s Word, or swaying this way and that in Satan’s New Age wind of “change”? Someone said to me recently, “our church will dialogue with anyone!” He meant it as a commendation. But the Bible shows that we should never dialogue about God’s absolutes at all, never. Isn’t that the oldest temptation in the dear old Book? (See Genesis 3:1). “Dialogue” is just another word for SINFUL DOUBT that leads to denial of God’s Word – at the end of the day!

“Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins gird about with truth...”

REINHARD BONNKE & NEW AGE MAITREYA.

By Sandy Wilson.

There has also been a story floating around for many years about Reinhard Bonnke making a prophesy that Christ was going to appear and do something miraculous, and within days a man identified as Maitreya appeared in the same area. I was not able to verify this story until I ran across the account in a German article talking about Share International and Benjamin Creme. Here is the English translation of the German text, a little hard to read, but I will give you the gist of it in a moment.

“In June 1988 a great evangelism effort by the mission Christ For All Nations with the healing healer Reinhard Bonnke took place in Nairobi. Bonnke ministered in exactly the same area as (Mary) Akatsa, healing people, and promising the same performance, supernatural healing in the context of mass meetings. Mary Akatsa saw herself confronted, in the meantime in June 1988, with the situation of competition from a sound preacher... Bonnke emphasized the date of June 11 separately, at which time Christ would in a special way would point Himself. In Bonnke’s language this announcement meant that Christ would evidence Himself by unusually numerous miracles during the service. In addition, on June 11 Mary Akatsa also made a marvelous announcement. She explained to her public during the service that they could expect a miracle, because a very important guest would come and give her a vital message. A white-dressed man of southern Arab decent appeared on the stage, appearing to the simple public in Nairobi like a Palestinian. ... The shape (of this “Jesus” figure) legitimized Mary Akatsa as a “true representative of the Highest One”, which Akatsa was very useful in its competition with Bonnke ...

In summary, the appearance of “Jesus” can in the Church Of Bethlehem in Nairobi on 11 June 1988 has a high probability of being a publicity campaign of the Predigerin Mary Akatsa in her competition with Bonnke. ...”<sup>17</sup>

(emphasis mine)

This is one of the news accounts where the rumors started. Unfortunately it is impossible from this account to tell if Bonnke said Jesus Christ would appear or if He would manifest Himself in miracles. I would love to hear from someone who was there who has what he said on tape. Mary Akatsa was able to use this prideful statement and now we have pictures all over the web of Maitreya’s appearance in Nairobi. It may very well be that Akatsa was jealous of Bonnke and used his prophesy to her advantage.

But I would like to point out that when prophetic statements are made from the stage which the Lord has not ordained, this is exactly the type of advantage we can expect the enemy to take of that kind of situation. Let this be a lesson to everyone who claims to speak a thing in the name of the Lord!

It doesn’t really matter that Reinhard Bonnke allegedly preaches the gospel, although I have yet to hear him do so on the tapes I have seen. What matters are his false miracles well documented in the HBO special.

GLOBAL MIND CONTROL SLATED FOR HUMANITY BY 2004 THE NEXT REVOLUTIONARY BATTLE WILL BE FOUGHT WITHIN YOUR OWN DNA

By Rev. Terry-ana Robinson, MC
empowerments@yahoo.com

By Spring 2004, an invasive mind control technology known as a 3Frequency Fence is slated for implementation onto global society. This Frequency Fence is a bio-neurological, electromagnetic induced form of mind control which will block your higher sensory abilities. A literal 3perceptual harnessy or 3mental prisony will be built around you without you even knowing it is happening, and the scariest part is, your five senses will not alert to you that anything is wrong.

All electrical power generating stations, and the appliances that draw power from them will be utilized as a carrier for this electromagnetic distortion. The human body has a natural immunity against such invasion, which the instigators of this technology will repress by introducing a certain organic, elemental compound into the world's water supply, and by transmitting specific wave spectrums of light directly into the human optical faculties.

Technologies such as broadcast television, and the internet, will be utilized to transmit the specific wave spectrums of light.

Further invasive programming will be subliminally carried through all radio broadcasts, and through the cellular and digital telephone network of towers worldwide. This will serve to enhance this bio-neurological invasion even further. After 6 years, this Frequency Fence will cause a genetic mutation to manifest in the collective human gene pool which will be passed down through procreation, thereby permanently scarring humanity.

There is no known technological defense against this invasion and there will be no place to hide. This technology will block your higher sensory abilities which will serve to limit your human potential. The blockage of human intuition or your 3gut instincty will be just one of many natural abilities which will be impeded. Another will be your ability to commune with your 3Higher Selfy or God, systematically cutting you off from your God Source. This is a system that is so insidious that even the elite will be deceived even though some components of this global mind control system are being created by that very elite ... -----

JUSTIFICATION? CAN WE PROTESTANTS DIALOGUE ???

The Lutheran Church and the Roman Catholic Church entered into an historic DIALOGUE in 1999. This dialogue has had an affect upon all Protestant churches, whether they are in simpatico or not! The action was unique and sensational because the Lutheran Church began because of the teachings of Martin Luther, who has been credited with starting the Protestant Reformation – some 500 years ago. Luther was not alone, of course, but his name has been associated with the denouncement of the Catholic Church's enslaving heresies that caused those who Protested to escape into God's Reformation Truth. How significant, then, that an anti-Reformation movement at the beginning of the 21st century should be officially, in a sense, commenced by the Lutheran Church!

The documents we have perused, issuing from this Lutheran/Catholic dialogue, are momentous because of the subject of this "happy little chat". The subject was JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH! Now, this was and is the most important of all the disagreements between the spurious cult of Rome and Biblical Christians. Upon this understanding of God's Word hangs the fate of millions – for people go to HELL, beloved of God, when they do not take Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour; by Faith alone. These church clergy can bandy around theological terms like "Justification by Faith" and use tautology to prove their own church's ecclesiastical stand until hell freezes over – but the reality of God's Truth on the subject is a life-and-death issue. There is only one way to God and safety in Heaven, faith alone in Christ's sacrifice on the Cross for sin. Now you might say, "but that is your opinion. Can't others have their religious opinions as well? The world will have peace that way!" No, GOD HAS HIS OPINION and we had better take note of the Almighty's one and only plan of salvation!

"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:" (Ephesians 2:8).

Here are some of the words of that historic dialogue between the Lutherans and the Catholics:

The Catholic Church and The Lutheran World Federation confirm the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification in its entirety

...1. The following elucidations underline the consensus reached in the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification (JD) regarding basic truths of justification; thus it becomes clear that the mutual condemnations of former times do not apply to the Catholic and Lutheran doctrines of justification as they are presented in the Joint Declaration.

●...2. "Together we confess: By grace alone, in faith in Christ's saving work and not because of any merit on our part, we are accepted by God and receive the Holy Spirit, who renews our hearts while equipping and calling us to good works" (JD □15).

A)... "We confess together that God forgives sin by grace and at the same time frees human beings from sin's enslaving power (...)" (JD 22). Justification is forgiveness of sins and being made righteous, through which God "imparts the gift of new life in Christ" (JD 22). "Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God" (Rom 5:1). We are "called children of God; and that is what we are" (1 Jn 3:1). We are truly and inwardly renewed by the action of the Holy Spirit, remaining always dependent on his work in us. "So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!" (2 Cor 5:17). The justified do not remain sinners in this sense."

DESPATCH:

*So far it all looks so evangelical and sound Biblically, doesn't it?
"Have we misjudged the Catholic Church" a naive person might query!*

Lutheran/Catholic Dialogue Continued:

"YET we would be wrong were we to say that we are without sin (1 Jn 1:8-10, cf. JD 28). "(A)All of us make many mistakes" (Jas 3:2). "Who is aware of his unwitting sins? Cleanse me of many secret faults" (Ps. 19:12). And when we pray, we can only say, like the tax collector, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner" (Lk 18:13). This is expressed in a variety of ways in our liturgies. Together we hear the exhortation "Therefore, do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions" (Rom 6:12). This recalls to us the persisting danger which comes from the power of sin and its action in Christians. To this extent, Lutherans and Catholics can together understand the Christian as simul justus et peccator, despite their different approaches to this subject as expressed in JD 29-30."

DESPATCH:

See the "persisting danger" remark in this statement? This document shows a belief that the "Christian" is in danger of eternal damnation through sin! No completed salvation in Christ alone here.

Dialogue document continued:

"(B)...The concept of "concupiscence" is used in different senses on the Catholic and Lutheran sides. In the Lutheran Confessional writings "concupiscence" is understood as the self-seeking desire of the human being, which in light of the Law, spiritually understood, is regarded as sin. In the Catholic understanding concupiscence is an inclination, remaining in human beings even after baptism, which comes from sin and presses towards sin. Despite the differences involved here, it can be recognized from a Lutheran perspective that desire can become the opening through which sin attacks. Due to the power of sin the entire human being carries the tendency to oppose God. This tendency, according to both Lutheran and Catholic conception, "does not correspond to God's original design for humanity" (JD 30). Sin has a personal character and, as such, leads to separation from God. It is the selfish desire of the old person and the lack of trust

VATICAN CITY, SNIPPETS

MAY 22, 2001 -

Ecumenical dialogue, Christian unity and papal primacy were at the heart of speeches given by cardinals on the second day of their extraordinary consistory.

German Cardinal Walter Kasper, president of the Pontifical Council for Christian Unity, was among the cardinals gathered in the Synod Hall who dedicated his 10-minute address to the topic of ecumenism.

"Unity is the challenge of the third millennium," he said, and ecumenism "the topic" of the times.

Cardinal Kasper said the Jubilee year offered prophetic signs in this regard, such as when the Pope, along with an Orthodox archbishop and a Protestant leader, opened the holy door of the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls.

The cardinal acknowledged that while ecumenism experiences "evident resistance" and "obstacles" on the part of some Christians, it has come a long way since the Second Vatican Council. He also said that interreligious dialogue has been "accelerated" during John Paul II's pontificate.

Vatican spokesman Joaquín Navarro-Valls, briefing reporters on the closed-door meetings, said that many cardinals thanked Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger, prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, (Inquisition) for the publication of the "Dominus Iesus" declaration.

That 2000 declaration clearly sets forth the unique and universal character of the salvation brought by Christ →

FOXÉ'S BOOK OF MARTYRS:

Quote:

"Torquemada was chief inquisitor until his death, and during the eighteen years he ruled the Holy Office, ten thousand two hundred and twenty persons were burned alive, and ninety thousand three hundred and twenty two punished with loss of property, or imprisonment – numbers so large as to seem incredible, but which are given by Llorente, the Spanish historian of the Inquisition, who was well qualified to judge of their accuracy."

Despatch: Their crime? They were Protestants back when the break away from the Catholic monstrosity was going on! Here the "Protestants" are, in 2001, going back to the Blood-thirsty Vatican in droves! She has not changed!

The Inquisition is still there, people! It has been in place for over four hundred years. Now it is called its name was changed in 1967. What was it called before?

"The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith",

"The Sacred Congregation, the Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Inquisition."

That office still holds its place, just as the Palace of the Inquisition did, adjacent to the Vatican. The current Grand Inquisitor is Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger.

'Time' magazine once called him "the world's most powerful cardinal and the Catholic Church's chief enforcer of dogma...." (December 6th, 1993, p. 58).

through his Church. In their addresses, the cardinals suggested that this document be a guide, especially in inter religious dialogue.

In John 15:15-17:

Beautiful meanings can be seen by looking up the Greek words in the text. Jesus asks Simon three times if he “loves” Him.

The first “lovest” is the Greek word “agapao” meaning in a deeply, Godly way. The answer from Simon Peter is the Greek word for love “phileo” which is a less strong word, more a friend’s affection and love. Simon is not able to say the strong word “agapao” as he does not trust himself. He denied Christ when He was arrested three times!

The second time Jesus asks Simon if he loves Him, He uses the Greek word “phileo” which condescends to Simon’s shamed lessening of “agapao.”

This is continued through to the end by Jesus, twice He asks if Simon merely loves Him with a friend’s affection. How could we know this if we did not look up the Greek words?

In Hebrews 6:20

an English word appears which is “fore-runner.” When we look up the Greek we find it is “prodromos” which word was used of a small “forerunning” boat in ancient times. This little boat was sent ahead into Greek harbours to anchor ocean liners in safety to the shore, the liners found it hard to enter some harbours. So too Jesus Christ is our “prodromous” Who has entered into the inner sanctuary of the Almighty’s Throne, and He has anchored our souls there! Nowhere can I find that information except by the Greek word itself.

ANOTHER OF THOUSANDS OF EXAMPLES COULD BE:

The word in English “moderation” in Philippians 4:5 is the beautiful Greek word “epieikes” which has the basic meaning of “sweetly reasonable”, “patiently gentle.”

Holman Hunt’s beautiful picture, “The Light of the World” is well known to many Christians, and unbelievers as well. The artist depicts Jesus Christ wearing a crown of thorns, standing outside a door which represents the human heart. This painting is in St Paul’s Cathedral in London. When it was first displayed the critics came to bring their comments about Hunt’s work. One of them said to the painter, “Mr. Hunt, you have made a serious mistake. You have painted a masterpiece, but you have painted a door without a handle!”

“That is no mistake,” replied the painter, “The handle is on the inside.”

I love that meaning, which I could never have known without looking up the Greek word.

and love toward God...

D)... Grace as fellowship of the justified with God in faith, hope and love is always received from the salvific and creative work of God (cf. JD 27). BUT it is nevertheless the responsibility of the justified not to waste this grace but to live in it. The exhortation to do good works is the exhortation to practice the faith (cf. BSLK 197,45). The good works of the justified “should be done in order to confirm their call, that is, lest they fall from their call by sinning again” (Apol. XX,13, BSLK 316,18-24; with reference to 2 Pet. 1:10. Cf. also FC SD IV,33; BSLK 948,9-23). In this sense Lutherans and Catholics can understand together what is said about the “preservation of grace” in JD 38 and 39. Certainly, “whatever in the justified precedes or follows the free gift of faith is neither the basis of justification nor merits it” (JD 25).”

DESPATCH:

Notice that here a “Christian” is supposed to be able to fall away out of Grace because of “sinning again.” I guess any R.C. who would not confess sin to the priest and receive absolution would be deemed “fallen from Grace”? Lost again after once receiving salvation?

Dialogue continues:

“E)... By justification we are unconditionally brought into communion with God. This includes the promise of eternal life: “(If we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his” (Rom 6:5, cf. Jn 3:36, Rom 8:17). In the final judgement, the justified will be judged also on their works (cf. Mt 16:27; 25:31-46; Rom 2:16; 14:12; 1 Cor 3:8; 2 Cor 5:10 etc.). We face a judgement in which God’s gracious sentence will approve anything in our life and action that corresponds to his will. HOWEVER, everything in our life that is wrong will be uncovered and will not enter eternal life. The Formula of Concord also states: “It is God’s will and express command that believers should do good works which the Holy Spirit works in them, and God is willing to be pleased with them for Christ’s sake and he promises to reward them gloriously in this and in the future life.” (FC SD IV,38). Any reward is a reward of grace, on which we have no claim.” (End of quote from the Catholic/Lutheran document.

Emphasis on “BUT”, “YET” and “HOWEVER” has been added by Despatch).

DESPATCH:

See E)... and the ambiguous “will not enter eternal life”?

NOTE: that the Lutherans and Catholics are no longer (officially) entering into condemnation of each other, each party agreeing to drop denouncement. These theologians are seeking in every way to pretend that Justification by Faith Alone can be twisted to include religious works for salvation with the stroke of a pen! No one can do that, if anyone seeks to include works as an imperative for salvation they end up with works being the real basis of salvation. Works and faith cannot be mixed:

“Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.” (Galatians 2:16).

moment that the Whore of Babylon, the Vatican monstrosity, will cease to condemn and bring anathema against those who actually preach authentic Justification by Faith alone! See below, the Office of the Inquisition is still in operation, friends, just as it was nearly 500 years ago! It is ruled over by Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger, affectionately (?) called "Joe the Rat" by those in the Vatican. There are 100 anathemas against those who believe in salvation by faith alone, these are curses!

"This sacred council accepts loyally the venerable faith of our ancestors...and it proposes again the decrees of the second Council of Nicea, of the Council of Florence, and of the Council of Trent." (Austin Flannery O.P. gen. Ed, Vatican Council 11 The Conciliar and Post Conciliar Documents. rev.ed.

(Costello Pub.1988) Vol.8. p. 412.)

DAVE HUNT STATES:

"The Council of Trent denounced the Reformation and damned evangelical's beliefs with more 100 anathemas. All of these condemnations of the gospel of God's Grace are endorsed and reaffirmed by Vatican 11... Vatican 11 clearly says:

"The holy Council teaches...that the Church...is necessary for salvation...Hence, they could not be saved who, knowing that the Catholic Church was founded as necessary by God through Christ, would refuse to enter it, or remain in it."

Remember that Hitler and Mussolini remained Catholic to the end and were never excommunicated from the Church."

("A Woman Rides the Beast" by Dave Hunt, Harvest House Pub.p.p. 89,90.)

THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS CANNOT BE STRESSED ENOUGH!

We Christians are standing at crisis point, the pivotal matter being

"how sinners are to gain salvation."

If those who know the Truth about salvation enter into any "dialogue" at all on Justification by Faith we are denying Christ's shed Blood –

☛...there is NO discussion possible on the subject,

☛...there are NO differing opinions to be considered in order to gain "consensus." GOD has declared His Truth and that is that.

☛..."NO correspondence will be entered into" by Him.

The next step with any church fellowship, group or individual must be to

BE CERTAIN THAT YOUR

UNDERSTANDING IS IN AGREEMENT

WITH GOD'S OPINION

ON THE SUBJECT.

If any of us deviate from Justification by Faith in its true Biblical sense we could well be "easy pickings" for the great syncretism of all religions under the cloven hoofs of Rome! It is all happening now, believers, get your act together.

WHAT DOES GOD SAY ABOUT THIS GREAT AND GLORIOUS SALVATION FOUND IN CHRIST JESUS ALONE?

This is the only "opinion" that counts. There are various ideas about this wondrous salvation these days, as there has always been through the Church Age. Let's get done to bare facts about this:

1....Unless we can see that Justification is ALL of God, without works of any kind, ers with burdens and dos and don'ts! The greatest joy of any life is obeying the Lord in the beauty of holiness. This is not a legalistic pressure in response to a tyrant, it is an inner response to the Holy Spirit within which gives delight and pleasure, release and comfort to the heart. It has always been so, willing and joyful obedience:

"Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy." (1 Chronicles 29:9).

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." (Galatians 5:22,23).

IS THE PERSON YOU HAVE AS A LEADER BEEN CHOSEN BY GOD OR BY HIMSELF?

A person is not ordained or commissioned, and then becomes a leader. To be a N.T. style leader the servant will be showing the gifts and attributes which mark out the position God has given them, even before there is any move by the Body to commission them! Those gifts and character - virtues which make a true leader should always fit the N.T. pattern to be authentic. It will be obvious that that person has "leadership qualities" of a Godly nature.

(WARNING, THIS DOES NOT MEAN THAT YOU SHOULD BECOME OUT OF ORDER AND SINGLE-HANDEDLY TAKE MATTERS INTO YOUR OWN HANDS AND CHALLENGE LEADERS! THE LOCAL BODY COULD WELL COME INTO PRAYER ABOUT UNTOWARD THINGS, HOWEVER, AND SEEK THE LORD'S WILL).

RUCKMANISM STILL RAMPANT !

The Ruckmanites tell us that we should not seek Greek or Hebrew word - meanings, that this is not productive in Bible exposition. Is this so? Not at all!

This would mean throwing out most of the study books, devotional aids, commentaries and scholarly books we have in our library. All the men and women we have found Godly and spiritual through the years have sought the meanings of Greek and Hebrew words in Bible study. Be careful, believers, do not yield to the Ruckman - style way of false reasoning. It is a serious thing to teach this error, for it will take away from any Christian who listens a vast avenue of godly understanding which can be grasped in no other way!

The Bible is many - faceted; we can gain so much by diverse ways of investigating its depths.

- ☛ We can do chain reference studies,
- ☛ immediate context and
- ☛ distance context studies,
- ☛ we can study one book and compare with others –

There are lots of ways of examining the Bible in depth.

- ☛ One way is to look into original language words.

LET US HAVE A FEW EXAMPLES HERE, JUST TO MAKE THE POINT CLEAR:

But it is never the position or person who should be esteemed, it is the devoted service and hard work that is appreciated. This must be given willingly to the humblest member of the Body, for Christ's dear sake.

A leader must be submissive, as all the others in the congregation are:

"Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, ALL of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble."
(1 Peter 5:5).

A leader should be loving and serving:

"But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. But IT SHALL NOT BE SO among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant" (Matthew 20:25-27).

CALLING MAN "FATHER."

We are calling a man "father" in a sense when we obey him rather than God. When we seek to please him, and place him in a revered position for his own sake. It is GOD whom we must follow and revere. We should get back to the service from the bottom up, and away from the control from the top down model of "ministry."

Look again at the passage in Matthew 23, it is revealing.

"Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples, Saying, The scribes and the Phari- sees sit in Moses' seat:

All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, [that] observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay [them] on men's shoulders; but they [themselves] will not move them with one of their fingers.

But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments, And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi. But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, [even] Christ; and all ye are brethren.

And call no [man] your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, [even] Christ. But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted."

(Matthew 23: 1-12).

NOTE:

Jesus Christ never would commend pastors who lay heavy burdens on the congregations; who take the honour from God for themselves; who are not truly servants in a humble way; who show arrogant disrespect for others; who exalt themselves and will not seek counsel and accountability from the Body. This is true whether such a one is a Jewish Rabbi or a Protestant pastor in a church or fellowship in AD 2000. Pastors must show how Christ takes away burdens, not laden othwe will be in a position where "dialogue" with the Vatican could be entirely possible! Even if we do not want to agree with Rome, our compromise will be sufficient to make consensus a viable option. The Catholic Church has quoted Bible verses which the Protestants hold dear and precious, see the statements from the Vatican above. They then weaken the Grace through Faith justification intransigence by adding "but" "yet" and "however." Then WORKS for salvation are inserted, the concept being that if works are not maintained then SIN will drag us down into God's condemnation again.

2....We must never compromise our stand because of "feelings", "relationships", "world peace" or "ecumenical discussion." We have to understand what a FACT orientated Faith in God's declarations in His Word is all about. We must reject a feelings and "win-win" dialectic, which is the New World mind-set.

TRUE, BORN-AGAIN BELIEVERS MUST STAND TOGETHER IN THE PERFECT PRESERVATION OF GOD HIMSELF.

The sinner can do nothing to add to a perfect salvation in Christ Jesus. The saved sinner is not saved because he/she "perseveres to the end" they are saved because GOD PRESERVES the redeemed unto eternal life. It is crucial that we all grasp the Preservation of God in the Justification by Faith issue, else we find ourselves preaching basically the same salvation message as the Vatican and her cohorts! More this issue of Despatch on Preservation, Dialogue and Grace mixed with Works.

On October 31, 1999, the LWF and the Catholic Church signed the "Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification" in Augsburg, Germany.

The signing of the document Nullified centuries of conflict between Lutherans and Catholics, and was an important milestone in the history of Christian unity.

WASHINGTON, D.C., USA/GENEVA, 11 January 2001 (ELCANEWS/*ENS/LWI)

In a gala Epiphany Day service that blended liturgical elements from both Lutheran and Anglican traditions, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) and the Episcopal Church of the United States celebrated a new relationship of "full communion" at Washington's National Cathedral on January 6.

The 3,500 people at the ceremony included representatives of the ELCA synods and Episcopal dioceses, international ecumenical guests, members of the churches' full communion dialogue and writing teams, and staff from both churches.

THE POPE AND THE NEW GLOBALISM.

Pope John Paul is working steadily, as a figurehead due to his advancing age, to bring in a New World Order. No true Christian should yield to any program or organization which collaborates with the Vatican and the Pope. Not just on religious or doctrinal grounds, but because of the evil political dynamite that the Pope is igniting in support of the New World Order's conquest of planet earth! The political ties to establish a new global civilization are multitudinous. Among those who are working for this Luciferian take-over are the Pope, Robert Muller, the United Nations, the World Parliament of Religions and Mikhail Gorbachev. In 1979 Muller was the oversee of Pope John Paul's first visit to the U.N. Muller wrote before the historic visit:

"I expect the Pope to lift the hearts of all international servants of the UN and of its specialized agencies and programs ... bring forth new visions in philosophy, sociology, ideology and spirituality centered on the UN's noble objective of "UNITY IN DIVERSITY."

(Muller. New Genesis. pp.113-114).

ber, it is a theocracy, the Lord God is the Ruler.

THE BODY IS UNDER GOD'S RULE.

Consider before the Lord Jesus Christ:

- ☉...Are you following a man or the Lord God Almighty?
- ☉...Are you submitting to bondage when you should have liberty in Christ?
- ☉...Are you submitting in a non-Biblical way to a man who wants to be a lord and a "priest" figure?
- ☉...Do you realise that all saved people are now priests under the great high Priest, Jesus Christ? Are you aiding some person to make himself a cult leader?

WHAT IS THE NEW TESTAMENT LEADERSHIP MODEL?

This is an interesting question! It does appear that some Christians have been in many churches which do not have an authentic N.T. leadership, and so they have submitted to a wrong understanding for a long time – in many cases. It therefore becomes easy to just knuckle down and do so again in a Home Fellowship or independent church. God is only pleased, however, when His people follow His Word and His instructions on leadership. If congregations allow a despot full sway, it is they, themselves, that are disobedient to the Holy Spirit. Let us examine carefully, in view of this, what God wants a leader to be:

A leader in a church should never be like a leader in the world system. Christ Jesus was not, He is the ultimate Model. He gave shepherds to the Church so that the shepherds could lay down their lives for the sheep, and lovingly care for them.

The Jewish leadership of the Twelve Apostles did not carry on down to the pastors or a hierarchy in Christendom. Those apostles will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel (Matt. 19:28; Luke 22:30). But we do not have a jump from those apostles to leadership in the Church. Look at those who will serve as judges in the future, it is the SAINTS, the Church itself. (1 Cor. 6:2-3). The Church itself possesses authority, not the mere servants of that Church, chosen to be in N.T. leadership positions. The authority is in the Word of God, not in some man. There is NO command by God for some person to RULE over the Body, quite the contrary.

WE BELIEVERS IN CHRIST ARE ALL PRIESTS!

"But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:"

( 1 Peter 2:9).

We can again suffer under a "spectator sport" kind of leadership as the Remnant Church develops (if it does, who knows at this juncture?) If at any time the leadership is narrowed down to a "powerful few" as someone described it, then the playing field has become "spectator" only for the majority. Church should be a shared ministry, with an empowerment by God of the whole. The whole congregation taking part in the pastoring of needy souls, not the Body watching some "boss" glorifying themselves at their expense. Yes, we all cannot teach, preach or study full-time, but that is a service to people who must work in a secular way, not an opportunity to act like the world does. The work done for service of the Body, in gentle self-sacrifice, should be highly esteemed for the love and devotion it is.

CALL NO MAN “FATHER” !

The Protestant Reformers, Zwingli and Luther, had a saying:

NO SACRIFICE BUT CALVARY;
NO PRIEST BUT CHRIST;
NO CONFSSIONAL
BUT THE THRONE OF GRACE.

The name “pope” means “father” but God tells us:

“...call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.”

Matthew 23:9.

DO WE HAVE LITTLE PROTESTANT “POPE?”

Today we are seeing independent churches being set up, which are not attached to the main denominations. This has been an answer for some Biblical Christians in the Remnant Church. For others it has not, as authoritarian leaders can become just as difficult and self-seeking outside the denominations as men like that are within Christendom and Roman Catholicism! We believers who have liberty in Christ Jesus do not want, in any way, to go back under the bondage of Roman Catholicism, and we reject non-biblical teachings. But, are we willing to accept Protestant, Remnant Church, versions of “priests” or “popes” who bring bondage to men and women, who “lord it” over congregations? Are we willing to put aside the leading of the Holy Spirit and His Lordship in order to please some authoritarian man? Isn't it time that the Lordship of God was honoured, instead of the model of leadership which has blighted the Christian Church for many centuries? This first came in when the Roman Catholic Church brought bondage to people by means of “clergy” and “priests.” Thus establishing a rule over the so-called “laity.” This is NOT the model of leadership which is shown in the New Testament the early Church. The word “Nicolaitans” means basically taking rule over the “laity” and this is condemned by the Lord in Revelation 2:6. God is NOT pleased with an authoritarian rule being taken over the Body, this is NOT Biblical.

It is a great temptation for some people when they find themselves the head of a Home Fellowship, or an independent local church. The temptation is to become a dictator instead of a servant! Now, there must be respect shown by the man who will lead in the New Testament manner, that respect is to be to the assembled Body of Christ! He must be humble, serving, caring, loving, ready to be brought to account by the Body of Christ. He is to bear the burdens of others, show empathy, concern and gently lead the sheep to the Lordship of the Chief Shepherd – not to himself! We have heard a number of unhappy descriptions of leaders in small groups (don't take that personally, unless the cap fits!). People are being brought into bondage sometimes. We do not need more little “priests” in our midst, we need Body ministry and the restoration of the whole Body to be used of God in the Great Commission. The Church is not a democracy, remem-

The united Nations/United Religions Alliance

The Global Ethic decree is providing the basic “spiritual” framework for the emerging world religion, with the United Religions Charter laying out the specific details. The Earth Charter, on the other hand, is providing the “political” foundation for the emerging world government - with the U. N. details for implementation. At the center of this alliance between politics and religion are the Gorbachev Foundation and the Vatican.

“Do not worry if not all religions will join the United religions organization. Many nations did not join the UN at its beginning, but later regreted it and made every effort to join. It was the same with the European community and it will be the case with the world's religions because whoever stays out or aloof will sooner or later regret it.”

ROBERT MULLER, SPEAKING AT THE PARLIAMENT OF WORLD RELIGIONS.

Gary Kah p. 220 “The New World Religion”

Muller did not find that the Pope let him down in his expectations! The Pope addressed the U.N. General assembly, bringing words of encouragement and affection:

“As a universal community embracing the faithful...the Church is deeply interested in the existence and activity of the Organization whose every name tells us that it unites and associates nations and States. It unites and associates: it does not divide and oppose. This is the real reason, the essential reason for my pres- ence with you.” ( ibid., p.110).

Writes Gary Kah:

“The close partnership further implies that the U.N. is serving as a political instrument of the Vatican. Aware of this spiritual/political alliance, former Secretary-General Dag Hammarskold articulated that “there were two Popes on this planet: a spiritual Pope in Rome and a civilian Pope in New York, namely, the Secretary-General of the UN.”

Bizarre secrets of Bush club exposed by Philip Delves Broughton in N. Y.

The bizarre rituals of one of America's most exclusive clubs, which counts both President Bush and his father among its members, have been laid bare by a hidden camera.

The all-male Skull and Bones club at Yale University has long been held up as an example of the powerful cabals that run America from behind the scenes. Fifteen new members in their final year at Yale are initiated annually and remain in the club for life.

Besides the Presidents Bush, the club has among its members Wall Street businessmen, ambassadors, politicians and judges. Soon after he entered the White House, George W Bush held a private dinner for his year of Bonesmen, as they are called.

The initiation rites at the club, however, have always been a mystery. Initiates simply disappeared into The Tomb, the club's gothic building at Yale, and emerged as Bonesmen, set up with a network that would see them through life. A night-vision camera, however, planted by fellow students at Yale caught this year's initiation. For Mr Bush, it will reinforce his image as an establishment scion rather than man of the people.

It shows one member posing as George W Bush, wearing a cape and speaking in a Texas twang threatening an initiate: "I'm gonna kill you like I killed Al Gore!" Initiates are then seen kneeling and kissing a skull at the feet of the members, while they are bombarded with sexual insults and shouts of "Run Neophytes".

The group then joins in chanting the Skull and Bones mantra, part of the ritual since the club's founding in 1856: "The Hangman Equals Death/The Devil Equals Death/Death Equals Death."

During the initiation, new members undergo a mock throat-cutting ceremony and then take turns to lie in a coffin and recount their personal and sexual histories to forge a bond of secrecy within the club. Having died as "barbarians" they step from the coffin reborn as members of "The Order". Electronic Telegraph.

YOU ARE A STAR!

"...in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world; holding forth the word of life."

PHILIPPIANS 2:15,15.

Dr. J. Dwight Pentecost writes:

"The apostle uses an interesting word when he says "holding forth." It has the idea of two travelers going through the night, one with a light and one without a light. The one extends his light on the other who is following, that light might fall on his footsteps....God has set you as a light. The word Paul translates 'light' is the word for luminary. It is the word for a light-giving heavenly body, a star if you please. This world is waiting for the sunrise of the Son of Righteousness, but until He slips over the horizon to bring His light to this world again, there is a star to cast its light that men might not fall. You are a star to hold forth the word of life; therefore, do all things without murmuring and complaining." (The Joy of Living. pp.101,102).

IS GEORGE W. BUSH A CHRISTIAN ?

The answer to the above question is, “of course he is not!” He is a man who is a string-puppet of the Skull and Bones! Some people believe that the Skull and Bones occult group controls the world. They certainly have a lot of clout in the global areas of politics, religion and money. “The Bones” was originally part of a German secret society, begun in 1832, and has kept its occult flavour ever since. It is a secret fraternity with evil oaths and bizarre religious customs and rituals. George W. Bush is a member of “the Bones” just as his father was.

Here we will take up the tale with a quote from Dr Monteith’s book, “Brotherhood of Darkness”:

“Some people believe that [the Bones] was an extension of the Illuminati, although that cannot be proven. All we can be certain of is that the Illuminati continued to exist long after it was outlawed, and Adam Weishaupt died just nineteen years before Skull and Bones was chartered at Yale University. The group is known by many names. Some call it the Order; others refer to it as The Brotherhood of Death; still others refer to it as The American Establishment. As far as we know there are no other chapters in the United States.

For over one hundred and sixty-five years, prominent families have sent their sons to Yale University to become Bones-men. Once they are inducted into the fraternity they are assured of prominent positions in life. Many become bankers, captains of industry, or politicians. All Bonesmen help their brethren

PRESERVED FOREVER BY GOD ALMIGHTY!

The spurious “salvation” doctrines which are leading people astray today are coming thick and fast! ALPHA, the “evangelism” program headed by Nicky Gumbel, has a perverted gospel message in it, which will fit in nicely with the Roman Catholic Church when the time is ripe. The dialogue with the Lutheran Church and the Catholic Church has an agreed consensus which is a false “salvation” message. The whole of the Protestant Movement may well be drawn into this dialogue. Many churches today have an incomplete gospel doctrine, which is a false “Justification by Faith” message. Those of the Remnant Church must be clear about GOD’S DECLARATION about Justification by Faith – the term has been redefined by unenlightened men in our times. When terms are redefined the ones who have made the redefinition hold the whip hand. Many of our readers may be a trifle bored with doctrinal matters, if you are one of these then all I can say is, “Snap out of it!” GOD has delivered to His Church in the Church Age a mandate, we have been left on earth to bring God’s message of Justification by Faith in Christ’s Blood alone. For many horrifying years in the Dark Ages the world almost lost the true message of Christ’s salvation by His sacrificial death on the Cross. This was recovered by such men of God as Huldrych Zwingli, John Calvin, John Knox, Thomas Crammer, Latimer and Ridley et al. Their spiritual light gave us Sola Fidei – Faith Alone. None of us would be saved if that Biblical Truth had been lost forever. We dare not let Satan cause Sola Fidei to be lost again.

It is our responsibility to stand for GOD’S OPINION on salvation, there is no discussion possible. Let every reader be convinced in his or her mind on the matter. What is God’s message to us? Let us briefly look at the fake messages of both the Alpha Course and the Lutheran/Catholic Dialogue document:

1. Alpha teaches that Justification is an experience that happens slowly through a process of receiving Grace within. One cannot, in this false teaching, receive Christ Jesus by Faith and be born again instantly. The message of Alpha is a man-orientated one, you get an experience of the “baptism of the Holy Spirit” and gradually you grow into a fully mature Christian. This is very Catholic, by the way.

2. In the Lutheran/Catholic dialogue again we see the man-orientated false presentation of Justification. Here the redefinition seems to suggest that the Vatican has gone over the Protestant side of the debate after 500 years! But no, we see that “Justification by Faith” has been redefined before our startled eyes! “WORKS” are really the basis for salvation all along. Yes, “faith” is there, say the R.C.s, “but” “yet” “however” works must be added or the sinner will be lost any way.

3. Both the above are versions of a man-orientated “salvation” which is NOT taught by God in His Word. Both depend on man himself, not utterly upon the Lord Jesus Christ. Let’s move then into the Biblical declaration that is entirely about GOD’S PROVISION and PRESERVATION through the Lord Jesus Christ.

God saves a sinner entirely by the sacrifice of His Son. This is GOD'S OPINION on the subject. "Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves."

(11 Cor. 13:5). Jesus Christ did all that was necessary for salvation two thousand years ago, on the Cross. He completed salvation for the whole world in Himself. How complete is complete? He did this without any aid of your works or mine, and ALL your sin was in the future when He died for you and I. No one can grow into this glorious salvation, we just accept it by faith. We are not saved because of an experience within, although we are regenerated (given new life in Christ) after we accept Christ's shed Blood on our behalf. Our salvation had nothing to do with us, CHRIST did it all for us before we were even born physically. We just believe that God made that provision of Blood for our sin, repent, and accept the glorious gift. NO WORKS needed or are accepted by the Almighty. We are not justified by works nor KEPT by works, we are preserved by God Himself forever. This is Justification by Faith as the Bible teaches it. If you have been taught a partial salvation, your understanding is erroneous. Nothing less than ETERNAL LIFE Preserved by God is the true Gospel message of the Bible.

ETERNAL SECURITY is about God's glorious Preservation of those who have run to Him for refuge. Anything less than this message is not Biblical, and will fit in with the spurious teachings of the Catholic Church if she takes over the Protestant Movement – which may well happen in these evil days. NO WORKS will be accepted by God, even to "keep" anyone saved after they receive Jesus as Saviour.

WHAT ARE PROOFS OF ETERNAL SECURITY?

If we are to embrace JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH alone, we must not have any works whatsoever! Not to save us or to keep us preserved in safety. Otherwise we end up with WORKS to complete our salvation. This is very much the same message that the Roman Catholic Church is using in order to syncretise Protestantism and Catholicism in AD 2000 and on. The Bible tells us all is completed in Christ Jesus for us.

"And ye are complete in him....."
 (Colossians 2:10).

THE DOCTRINE OF JUSTIFICATION. ETERNALLY PRESERVED AND SECURE IN CHRIST.

The summary statement of all the above is Romans 5:10:

"For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life."

The glorious truth Paul is literally shouting about here is this: Jesus Christ died to get me saved, but he now lives to keep me saved. This is why he is said in Hebrews 5:9 to be the author of eternal salvation.

EXTRACT:

3. The work of the Holy Spirit:

a... He regenerates the believer Jn. 3:3-7; Titus 3:5; Jas. 1:18; 1 Pet. 1:23). This means the Christian has a new nature that wants to do the things of God.

b... He baptizes the believer into the body of Christ (Rom. 6:3, 4; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal.

3:27; Eph. 4:4, 5; Col. 2:12). The believer thus becomes bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh.

c... He indwells the believer. (Jn. 7:37-39; 14:16; Rom. 8:9; 1 Cor. 2:12; 3:16; 6:19; 1 Jn. 3:24).

Note especially John 14:16:

"And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever."

d... He seals the believer (2 Cor. 1:22; 5:5; Eph. 1:13, 14; 4:30). It has already been noted that Romans 8:30 is probably the strongest verse in the Bible concerning eternal security. The second strongest would doubtless be Ephesians 4:30:

"And grieve not [literally, stop grieving] the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption."

What is this day of redemption?

According to Romans 8:23 it is a reference to the rapture. In other words, the child of God is sealed by the Spirit of God until the day of the Rapture itself.

e... He strengthens the believer (Eph. 3:16).

f... He prays for the believer (Rom. 8:26).

The Assurance of Salvation.

"These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may KNOW that ye have eternal life and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God"

(1 Jn. 5:13).

SNIPPET

Lutherans, Episcopalians, Catholics Join Forces in Northeast Ohio

In an historic pact that would have been unimaginable a generation ago, the Northeast Ohio region's Lutheran, Episcopal and Catholic churches are pledging to worship, lobby and pray together as a sign of Christian unity. While the agreement stops short of addressing divisive issues such as shared Communion, the covenant concludes with the VOW, "We hereby agree to strive toward the removal of impediments to the cause of unity, and place no impediment in the way of reunion."

"This is another level of ecumenism, and mutual respect," said (Catholic) Bishop Anthony M. Pilla. "We're all publicly committing ourselves and celebrating it."

The Rev. Lloyd O'Keefe, ecumenical officer, Episcopal, stated, "I think it's a breakthrough for ecumenical relations and promises to be a wonderful working relationship."

Bishop Marcus J. Miller (Lutheran) said, "I'm always so moved by...how deeply important it is to so many people to see us together."

The agreements are with the more moderate Evangelical Lutheran Church in America; the more conservative Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod has expressed concerns that the Lutheran faith may be compromised.
